

Empire Building
Birmingham, Alabama
Richard W. Sprague, 1979
Birmingham Historical Society
View to West

FEB 16 1982

The Empire Building in Birmingham, Alabama, was constructed in 1909 and illustrates the city's rapid growth from a rough boomtown founded after the Civil War into a thriving metropolis of business and industry in the early 20th century. The building was listed in the NPS National Register of Historic Places in 1982. (Richard W. Sprague)

Return to Toni Lee, National Park Service, 343-9520