A black and white photograph of a hallway. The hallway is viewed through a large, arched doorway. On the left wall, above the arch, is a white rectangular sign with the word "EXIT" in bold, black, sans-serif capital letters, followed by a right-pointing arrow. The hallway is carpeted and has dark wood paneling on the walls. A bright light fixture is visible in the distance, and another person is faintly visible further down the hallway. The lighting is dramatic, with strong highlights and deep shadows.
