A black and white photograph of a school building's facade. The sign for Point Arena High School is mounted on a light-colored wall with dark horizontal bands. The sign is arranged in three rows: 'POINT ARENA' on the top row, 'HIGH' on the middle row, and 'SCHOOL' on the bottom row. The letters are dark and blocky. To the right, a taller, narrower section of the building is visible. Below the sign is a dark, recessed area, possibly an entrance or a covered walkway.
