

JUN 6 1985th 2

KENTUCKY HERITAGE COUNCIL
STATE HISTORIC PRESERVATION OFFICE
FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY 40601

Name Belle's Tavern (BN-312)(Early Stone Buildings)

Location HWY 255, Park City, Barren County, KY

Photographer Carolyn Murray Wooley

Date Taken December 1983

Negative Location Kentucky Heritage Council

View east end

Photo # 1

BN-312

JUN 6 1985

2

KENTUCKY HERITAGE COUNCIL
STATE HISTORIC PRESERVATION OFFICE
FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY 40601

Name Belle's Tavern (BN-312)(Early Stone Buildings)

Location HWY 255, Park City, Barren County, KY

Photographer Carolyn Murray Wooley

Date Taken December 1983

Negative Location Kentucky Heritage Council

View interior, from south rear

Photo # 2

JUN 6 1985 th 312

KENTUCKY HERITAGE COUNCIL
STATE HISTORIC PRESERVATION OFFICE
FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY 40601

Name Belle's Tavern (BN-312)(Early Stone Buildings)

Location HWY 255, Park City, Barren County, KY

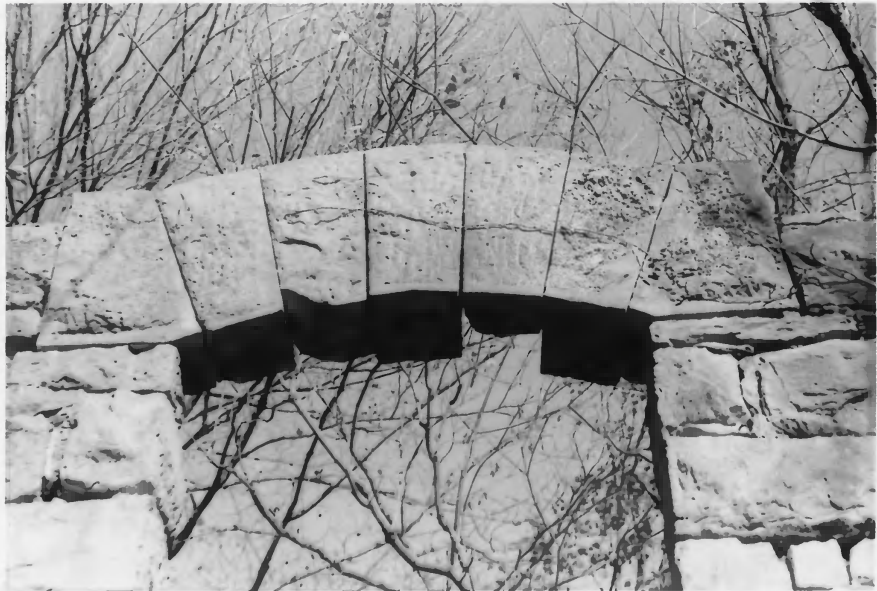

Photographer Carolyn Murray Wooley

Date Taken December 1983

Negative Location Kentucky Heritage Council

View interior, from south rear

Photo # 3

JUN 6 1983 h 312

KENTUCKY HERITAGE COUNCIL
STATE HISTORIC PRESERVATION OFFICE
FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY 40601

Name Belle's Tavern (BN-312)(Early Stone Buildings)

Location HWY 255, Park City, Barren County, KY

Photographer Carolyn Murray Wooley

Date Taken December 1983

Negative Location Kentucky Heritage Council

View voussoir detail

Photo # 4

BELL'S TAVERN

Erected by Wm. Bell, 1839. Stage stop for his lines that brought visitors to Mammoth Cave when first promoted. Famed in U.S. and Europe for elite patrons, cuisine and magic peach and honey brandy for "joy before the journey's end", until it burned 1860. Civil War doomed completion of new tavern begun by grandson, Wm. F. Bell and his stepfather, George M. Proctor.

1039

BN 312

KENTUCKY HERITAGE COUNCIL
STATE HISTORIC PRESERVATION OFFICE
FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY 40601

Name Belle's Tavern (BN-312)(Early Stone Buildings)

Location HWY 255, Park City, Barren County, KY

Photographer Carolyn Murray Wooley

Date Taken December 1983

Negative Location Kentucky Heritage Council

View State Highway Marker

Photo # 5