

PUBLIC WATER TROUGH

This concrete trough, with float valve, was built in the early 1920s to replace the older wooden facilities. It has been preserved as part of Geary's heritage.

MARKER SELECTED BY: DR. VERNON SIDNEY AND
THE GEARY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
JAN. 26, 1982

Public Water Trough and Well Site
Main & Canadian Aves.

Geary, Blaine, Oklahoma

Dianna Everett photo

26 April 1989

S. H. P. O.

Front of trough, camera facing East

Public Water Trough and Well Site

Main + Canadian Aves.

Geary, Blaine, Oklahoma

Dianna Everett photo

26 April 1989

S.H.P.O.

Culvert, ditch, + trough, camera facing West

Public Water Trough and Well Site
Main + Canadian Aves.

Geary, Blaine, OK

Dianna Everett photo

26 April 1989

S.H.P.O.

Trough works, metal cover; camera facing SW

Note environs

Public Water Trough and Well Site
Main + Canadian Aves.

Geary, Blaine, OK

Dianna Everett photo

26 April 1989

S.H.P.O.

Colvert and Trough; Camera facing NW

Note Environs