A replica of the two room log cabin where Jefferson Davis was born is near the base of the monument. The land upon which the Bethel Baptist Church of Fairview stands was donated by Jefferson Davis and dedicated by him in 1886. This was the original location of the two room log structure in which Davis was born.

Daughters of the Confederacy.

Jefferson Davis was born on June 3, 1808 in what was then called Davisboro. In his youth, his family moved to Mississippi, but later returned to Kentucky where Davis attended first St. Thomas College near Springfield, Kentucky, and then Transylvania College in Lexington, Kentucky before his appointment to West Point Military Academy in 1824.

After he graduated from West Point in 1828, Davis had an illustrious career in the military, serving in both the the Indian and Mexican Wars. In the Mexican War he attained the rank of Brigadier General. Between periods of service in the military, Davis served as a presidential elector in 1844 and was elected to the House of Representatives in 1845, resigning to serve in the Mexican War. After the Mexican War he was appointed to the Senate to fill a vacancy in 1847, and later elected to the Senate. During President Franklin Pierce's administration Davis was the Secretary of War. In 1857 he was re-elected to a six year term in the Senate where he became the Chairman of the Committee on Military Affairs. However, in 1861, when the controversy between the North and South reached the level of hostilities he resigned this office and was elected President of the Confederacy by acclamation. He served as Confederate President in Richmond, Virginia from 1861-1865. Captured in Georgia at the close of the war, he was imprisoned for two years. He died in New Orleans in 1889 after a short illness.

The Jefferson Davis Monument and birthplace are located roughly a hundred miles west of Hodgenville where Abraham Lincoln was born and where the log cabin that was his first home still stands. The Jefferson Davis Monument plays an integral part in celebrating the traditions of the Confederacy. Thousands of people visit the monument annually and every June hundreds of Civil War buffs gather at the foot of this structure for an old-fashioned "dinner on the grounds and speakin"."

Experts on the War Between the States, the Confederacy, and Jefferson Davis come to compare notes and pay oral tribute to the century-old traditions of the South. Many descendants of the Confederates still meet as the units that fought the Union Army. They wear Confederate uniforms, carry antique muskets, and fire the cannon.
