Wynnton College, Male and Female, 1890-91" points out that the college was located on the dummy line, and afforded "all the advantages of the city, while every temptation is removed. There is not a saloon within a mile and a half of the grounds."

From 1889 Mr. W. E. Meagley was principal. He lived at "Hilton", and often entertained students at parties in his historic home. Some students from smaller towns even boarded at "Hilton." During Mr. Meagley's tenure at Wynnton, a Captain E. L. Darst was professor of Mathematics and Military, and his students used the red brick schoolhouse as an armory to store their weapons and equipment.

By 1908 the building was being used as a two-room school housing the first and second grades. Pictures on display at the school show students with their teacher, Miss Woodie Schley, and the interior of the classroom, whose focal point was the large potbellied stove used to heat the building. Four classrooms had been added for the upper grades by this time.

In 1925 Wynnton was annexed to the City of Columbus, and the school became a part of the public school system. The original building served for a while as the school lunchroom (until 1948 when a large cafeteria was built.) From 1948 to the present the "red brick schoolhouse" has been the school library, housing more than 6,000 books.

Principals of Wynnton School since 1911 have been: B. K. Scott, Miss Leila Kendrick, Miss Lottie V. Baldwin, Mr. W. E. Pafford, Mr. V. V. Morgan, Mr. Bobert L. Buxton and Mr. Sam H. Williams.
