At the time it was one of 5 or 6 large Georgian style dwellings built by the Hayden Family along this street. Captain Hayden was the son of Deacon Nathaniel Hayden and conti in his fathers professions as farmer, shoemaker and tanner. He commanded the Winds "Lexington Alarm" party of 2 men in April 1775. Later in the Revolution he went to West Point where he commanded 42 enlisted men. The house was occupied in the late 19th century by his grandson Samuel B. Hayden.	This house is one of the finest Georgian period dwellings in the Town of Windsor. has handsome details (cut-stone flat-arches, paneled double-doors, end-chimneys) a retains much of its original integrity. This house is very much like the Hezekiah Chaffee house at 108 Falisado Avenue.	יז אולדהאנכבן סא באכאולבר לנואבן ושהסאי באוכר	24 story masonry dwelling with gambrel roof.
