COURTYARD ENTRANCE LOOKING NORTH

2 of 9

A black and white photograph of the entrance to the Oroville Inn. The entrance is framed by a highly ornate, classical-style archway. The archway features intricate carvings, including a central oval medallion at the top and two fluted columns on either side. A large, multi-paned arched window is set within the arch. In front of the entrance, a dark awning with a scalloped edge is supported by two white poles. The awning has the text "OROVILLE INN" and "2066" printed on it in a light, serif font. To the right of the entrance, a street lamp with a glass globe stands on a decorative post. The background shows a large, arched glass structure, possibly a conservatory or greenhouse, and some foliage on the left. The overall scene is well-lit, suggesting a bright day.
