Photographer unknown; after 1900 probably Hill's collection, Benicia Front view of Carr House facing north. This old photo clearly shows fine details of porch and fence. Barn and shack are long gone.

View taken from sidewalk facing north. Trellis and picket fence and lath recently restored.
Last winter during a gale a tree had been hurled against this side causing the damage.

Side of house facing north. Deteriorated brick will be replaced with bricks fired in 1872 from wreckage of Solano Hotel. Weinmann, a former owner of the Carr House also owned the Solano Hotel.

Back door facing south. Note how rear center section has been filled in and enclosed using the older window which probably came from the original back wall. Window brackets are in keeping with 1900 frame addition.
