THIS WAS THE HOUSE where Capt. Orlando Humason, long recognized as the "father of Wasco county," once lived. It's now standing and is in excellent condition on Court street, some two blocks further south than where it once was located on the site of the present home of Mrs. Evelyn Houton, the widow of Fred Houton. The county was 100 years old Monday and the house may be about the same age. Humason, serving as a state representative, introduced legislation creating Wasco county, then extending from the Columbia river to California, and from the Cascades to the summit of the Rockies, an area of some 130,000 square miles, with a population of perhaps 350 white persons. Optimist Newsphoto.
