156

A black and white photograph of a house's front entrance. The house has horizontal siding. The entrance features a dark door with a three-pane window. The door is flanked by narrow vertical windows. Above the door is a white frame with the number '156' in the center. A mailbox is mounted on the wall to the right of the door. The image shows signs of wear and tear, such as peeling paint and missing glass in the side windows.
