

HISTORIC PROPERTY INVENTORY

	CURRENT PHOTOGRAPH	YHF 104
COUNTY Yavapai
DATE 1977
ACREAGE

Day House is a one-story masonry structure with symmetrical oval in plan with a square entry extending from the south side. The entry protrudes from the center of the roof, which is hipped over the entry. Two types of details are employed as shown in the gable tie beam, eave brackets, and tracery; and the addition of heavy segmental arches over windows and doors. The house is a later addition.

The imaginative architectural concepts developed during the