Dear Friend

We this day receive your favor of the 14th inst informing us of the scribbles for Waterloo Bank Stock, the of course could not expect any when applicants were so numerous nevertheless, but are equally indebted to you as though our applications had been successful.

We would decline purchasing at 10 per cent premium to put our surplus funds in larger & wholesaler to the stock at that price. We will draw on you in favor of Robt White Esq Cashier of Manhattan for the $2000 & am with esteem Yours Truly
C. G. Fairbanks

[Faint, mirrored handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is illegible due to fading and the quality of the scan.]

[Handwritten notes in cursive script, possibly a list or a set of instructions. The text is difficult to decipher but appears to be organized in a structured manner.]
