This is a detailed topographic map of the Clay City area in Powell County, Kentucky. The map features contour lines indicating elevation, with major contours at 600, 700, and 800 feet. The Red River is shown flowing through the region, with several branches and a dam labeled 'MOUNTAIN'. Key locations include Powell Valley, Waltersville, and Clay City. The Clay City National Bank Building is specifically marked with a star symbol. Other features include the Clay City Interchange, various cemeteries (Eaton Cem, Clark Cem, etc.), churches (Lords Valley Ch, Pompeii Ch), and a dragstrip. Infrastructure such as roads (1057, 11, 15, 82), a pipeline, and a railway are also depicted. The map includes numerous spot elevations and benchmark markers (BM 621, 633, 638, 639, 634, 631, 633).
