STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

While the Iowa County Courthouse is the oldest in continuous use in Wisconsin, its principal area of significance is architectural, which is perhaps best summarized by Perrin, who states, "This is the only important remaining example of a public building in the Temple variety of the Greek Revival style...A similarly designed court house at one time stood in Mineral Point, but was torn down many years ago. While no such fate threatens the Iowa County Court House, it is important to see to it that it never will be threatened with destruction. It is an outstanding piece of work, unique in the state and in the Middle West, and deserving of careful attention and preservation."
