Benjamin Gachet House,
Lamar County, Georgia

1 of 12

Benjamin Gachet House,
Lamar County, Georgia
2 of 12

Benjamin Gachet House,
Lamar County, Georgia
3 of 12

Benjamin Gachet House,
Lamar County, Georgia
4 of 12

Benjamin Gachet House,
Lamar County, Georgia

5 of 12

Benjamin Gachet House,
Lamar County, Georgia
6 of 12

Benjamin Gachet House,
Lamar County, Georgia
7 of 12

Benjamin Gachet House,
Lamar County, Georgia
8 of 12

Benjamin Gachet House,
Lamar County, Georgia
9 of 12

Benjamin Gachet House,
Lamar County, Georgia
10 of 12

Benjamin Gachet House,
Lamar County, Georgia
11 of 12

GEORGIA
1776

GACHET HOME

The historic Gachet home is situated at the crossing of Towns and old Alabama Roads called Milner Cross Roads. This road was also an Indian trail.
Benjamin Gachet, a French nobleman, fled from a San Domingo revolution and settled in what is now Lamar County.
On March 19th, 1825, General Marquis de LaFayette, on his official visit to Georgia, spent the night at the Gachet home and the noted Frenchman was doubly welcomed as a patriot and visitor from France.
This tablet was erected at the request of the Lamar-LaFayette Chapter, N.S.D.A.R.

Benjamin Gachet House,
Lamar County, Georgia
12 of 12