A black and white photograph of a park area. In the foreground, a rustic wooden fence made of two horizontal rails and vertical posts runs across the frame. Behind the fence, a sign on a dark post reads "NO CARS ALLOWED IN THE PARK". The sign is rectangular with a white background and black text. The ground is covered in fallen leaves, and several trees with dense foliage are scattered throughout the scene. The lighting is bright, creating strong shadows and highlights on the ground and leaves.
