STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The Buckner Cabin is a prime representative of the pioneer structures in the Stehekin Valley. It is a visual reminder when this remote community was at its beginning; where the earliest settlers - homesteaders and prospectors made this wild country a home.

William Buzzard of Spokane arrived in the Stehekin Valley in 1889. He homesteaded a section at this site along the Stehekin River and cleared the land; even today it is the largest piece of cleared land in the Valley. Here he built this cabin and made it his home. Besides pioneering, he engaged in prospecting and became well-known as a miner.

Later Harry Buckner's father purchased this property and lived here to become a prominent citizen. Harry has lived on this homestead his whole life, although now occupying a modern residence nearby.
