NATIONAL INVENTORY - N REGISTER	RTMENT OF THE INTERIOR PARK SERVICE R OF HISTORIC PLAC NOMINATION FORM nplete applicable sectio	CES	Verma OUNTY: Lamoi FOR NPS USE NTRY DATE	ILLE
VIVERALVELU NATIONAL NATIONAL REGISTER NATIONAL INVENTORY - N REGISTER (Type all entries - com NAME 7 1 COMMON: Village Covered Brid	PARK SERVICE R OF HISTORIC PLAC NOMINATION FORM	CES	OUNTY: Lamoi FOR NPS USE	ILLE
NATIONAL INVENTORY - N REGISTER (Type all entries - com NAME / 19 common: Village Covered Brid	OMINATION FORM		Lamoi FOR NPS USE	ONLY
NATIONAL INVENTORY - N REGISTER (Type all entries - com NAME 7 1 COMMON: Village Covered Brid	OMINATION FORM	EN	FOR NPS USE	ONLY
REGISTER (Type all entries - com NAME / 19 common: Village Covered Brid		1	NTRY DATE
(Type all entries - com	nplete applicable sectio	1		AT0
VAME / 10 COMMON Village Covered Brid		 	ner 10
Village Covered Brid	· · · ·
Village Covered Brid		•
AND/OR HISTORIC:	dge
		· · ·		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
		-
LOCATION
	road across Nor		h of Lamoill	le River
at west edge of Wate	erville village	CONGRESSION	AL DISTRICT:
Waterville		V+	Dictrict
STATE	CODE	COUNTY:		CODE
Vermont	50		amoille	015
		-
CATEGORY	OWNERSHIP		STATUS	ACCESSIBLE
		······		TO THE PUBLIC
			Unoccupied Restricted
		Considence	Preservation work
			in progress	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
				Comments
		ence] Uther (Specify)
Entertainment Museum	Scientific
OWNER OF PROPERTY
OWNER'S NAME:
Town of Waterville
STREET AND NUMBER:
	•			CODF
		STATE:	Vormont	CODF 50
	 N	l	Vermont
Office of Town Clerk	k
STREET AND NUMBER:
	·
CITY OR TOWN:		STATE		CODE
Waterville		1	Vermon+	50
	IPVEYS		v ci nont
TITLE OF SURVEY:	/////////////////////////////////////
	tes and Structu	res Surv	ey
Vermont Historic Sit		X State] Local
DATE OF SURVEY: 1974	🔲 Federal	A Sidie
DATE OF SURVEY: 1974 DEPOSITORY FOR SURVEY RECORDS:	:
DATE OF SURVEY: 1974 DEPOSITORY FOR SURVEY RECORDS: Vermont Division of	:
DATE OF SURVEY: 1974 DEPOSITORY FOR SURVEY RECORDS: Vermont Division of STREET AND NUMBER:	:
DATE OF SURVEY: 1974 DEPOSITORY FOR SURVEY RECORDS: Vermont Division of	:
Date of survey: 1974 Depository for survey records: Vermont Division of street and number: Pavilion Building	:	;	Vermont
	Vermont CLASSIFICATION CATEGORY (Check One) District Building Site X Structure Object Bot PRESENT USE (Check One or More as a structure) Present USE (Check One or More as a structure) PRESENT USE (Check One or More as a structure) Industrial Commercial Industrial Educational Military Entertainment Museum OWNER OF PROPERTY OWNER OF PROPERTY OWNER'S NAME: TOWN OF Waterville STREET AND NUMBER: (no street number) City or town: Waterville LOCATION OF LEGAL DESCRIPTIC COURTHOUSE, REGISTRY OF DEEDS, Office of Town Cleri STREET AND NUMBER: (no street number) CITY OR TOWN: Waterville Waterville REPRESENTATION IN EXISTING SL	STATE CODE Vermont 50 CLASSIFICATION CATEGORY (Check One) OWNERSHIP District Building District District Building District Object Private In Pro Object Both Being PRESENT USE (Check One or More as Appropriate) Agricultural Agricultural Government Park Commercial Industrial Private Reside Educational Military Religious Entertainment Museum Scientific OWNER'S NAME: Town of Waterville Street number) City or town: Waterville Education of LEGAL DESCRIPTION courthouse, REGISTRY OF DEEDS, ETC: Office of Town Clerk Street and number; (no street number) City or town: Waterville Street and number: (no street number) City or town: Waterville Street number) City or town: Waterville REPRESENTATION IN EXISTING SURVEYS	STATE CODE COUNTY: Vermont 50 L CLASSIFICATION OWNERSHIP District Building X ⁺ Public Public Acquisition: Site X Structure Private In Process Object Both Being Considered PRESENT USE (Check One or More as Appropriate) Being Considered Agricultural Government Park X Educational Military Religious	STATE CODE COUNTY: Vermont 50 Lamoille CLASSIFICATION CATEGORY (Check One) OWNERSHIP STATUS District Building X*Public Public Acquisition: Cocupied Object Both Being Considered Preservation work in progress PRESENT USE (Check One or More as Appropriate) KI Transportation Preservation work in progress Commercial Industrial Private Residence Other (Specify) Educational Military Religious State: OWNER'S NAME: Town of Waterville State: Street AND NUMBER: (no street number) State: City or Town: State: Off

7.	DESCRIPTION
		Excellent	X Good	•	heck One) Deteriorated	🗌 Ruins (Unexposed
	CONDITION		(Check One)		1	(Check (
	DESCRIBE THE PR	X Altere		Unaltered		Moved	Original Site
	The Villa originall incorpora apexes of the timbe steel bea ture of t irregular	ge Covere y by two te iron s the diag r deck st ms. ¹ The he bridge stone s1	d Bridge flanking uspensior onal brac ructure w timber t . The st abs laid	consists timber q rods wh es to th vas repla russes n ructure dry and	of a s ueenpos ich ext e botto ced wit ow carr rests o capped	t trusses end from m chords. h four 10 y only th n abutmen with conc	In 1968 ngitudinal e superstruc- ts built of rete.	S has a 12. planks pl laid dire	5-foot ro aced on e ctly on t inning se	adway. 7 dge and p he steel	The wood perpendic deck bea	floor, ular to ms. Th	which con the trus e floor i	ses, has been	v
	the truss painted b short of walls. T each wall	es (and s oards-and the eaves here is a	ide walls -battens to leave large re de visibi	s) of the hung ver e strip o ectangula llity for	bridge tically penings r windo the sh	are shea . The si along th w near th	ther to form thed with un- ding stops e tops of the e west end of s in the road battens h unpainted ward beyo the eaves The mediu	ung verti flush bo nd the li	cally; th ards hung ne of the rtal open able root	ne west g g vertica e side wa nings are E, which	able en 11y. T 11s to framed is flus	d is shea The boards form half with seg th with th	boards-and- thed with curve out- -arches under mental arches e gable ends,	• _
					, ,	a ngels A s
						•
	1. Robert L.	Robert L. Hagerman	Hagerman, Morris	n, Cover e ville, Vt	d Bridg	ges of Lam , p. 17.	oille County,
				•			RECEIVED
						TELLO	ATIONAL EGISTER 72119
								ļ

Abbrighed Education, Palitical.:::: Urban Planning, Prehistoric Engineering Religion/Phi. Other (Specify) Agriculture Industry Science	h Century [] 17th Century K] 19th Century (2) (If Applicable and Known) C. 1877 FIGANCE (Check One or More as Applopriate) white of Education, f Polifical for an intermediate of the second ethistoric Security Isosophy storic Industry Isosophy with Invention Science Architecture Scient/Humen- merce Literature Scient/Humen- merce Interform Interform Interform mulications Multitary Theorer interform Interform Interform more Music R Transportation significance ge Covered Bridge together with two other covered wo n the town of Waterville and two bridges of the same the adjoining town of Belvidere cross the North Brance model in the store within a distance of about five miles, go one of the most concentrated groups of covered brid t. The five bridges are important and distinctive of the historic environment of the Lamoille River red bridges of Vermont are among its most cherished as historic resources. About one hundred of the bridges in the state, the highest concentration by area cridges in the United State. Many of these bridges is altered only slightly, and many relate to other is and villagescapes to form a unique historic environ to the state. The covered bridges have become subject singly intense and detrimental effects of those chari- the state. The covered bridges have become subject singly intense and detrimental effects of those chari- the state. The covered bridges have become subject singly intense and detrimental effects of these chari- the state. The covered bridges have become subject singly intense and protection of the Northeast, recently, however, various forces have caused drastic and the state. The covered Bridges of the Northeast, recently, however, various forces have become subject singly intense and protection of the National Register Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridge RECENER RECENER RECENER	PERIOD (Check One or More as .
EFECIFIC DATESS (II Applicable and Known) C. 1877. INEAS OF SIGNIFICANCE, (Check One or More as Appropriate) Aboriginal	(a) (It Applicable and Known) C. 1877 FIGANCE (Check One or More as Appropriate) (a) Education, Political: United States, Conserved States, Conservation States, Conserved States, Conservation States, Conserved States, Conservation States, Conservation, States, Conservation, Co				20th Century
Intera or supercance (Check One or More as Appropriate)	<pre>FIGANCE (Check One or More as Appropriate)</pre>	15th Century	17th Century	X 19th Century
Abergand before the Education of Political and by Urban Planning. Prohistoric Engineering Religion/Phi. Other (Specify) Agriculture Invention Science Agriculture Invention Science Architecture Londscope Social/Human- Commetce Comm	Education, Covered Bridges of the Northeast, recently, however, various forces have caused drastic not bistoric State, the remaining covered bridges active of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes to recognition and protection of the National Register Partice State bridge to the remaining covered bridges Partice and the state of the state of the state Partice and the state of the state of the state Partice and the state of the state of the state Partice and the state of the state of the state Partice and the state of the state of the state Partice and the state of the state of the state Partice and the state of the state of the state Partice and the state of the state of the state Partice and the state of the state of the state of the state Partice and the state of the sta
Agriculture Industry Losophy Agriculture Invention Science Sculpture Art Architecture Science Sculpture Interion Commerce Literature Interion Commerce Literature Interion Conservation Music Transportation Music Transportation Music Transportation Music Science Sculpture Interion Science Sculpture Interion Music Science Sculpture Interion Music Science Sculpture Interion Music Science S	storic Industry Isophy Solute Industry Science Hecture Science Architecture Social/Human- merce Literature Itarian munications Multicary Theoter tervation Music Transportation significance ge Covered Bridge together with two other covered with the adjoining town of Belvidere cross the North Bran- moille River within a distance of about five miles, ge one of the most concentrated groups of covered br t. The five bridges are important and distinctive of the historic environment of the Lamoille River red bridges of Vermont are among its most cherished in historic resources. About one hundred of the bridge altered only slightly, and many relate to other ts and villagescapes to form a unique historic envir cently, however, various forces have caused drastic in the state. The covered bridges have become subje isingly intense and detrimental effects of those cha ant Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes to recognition and protection of the National Register Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridge 	AREAS OF SIGNIFICANCE ,(Che	eck One or More as Approp	riate)	Se traci i card
Agriculture Industry Losophy Agriculture Invention Science Sculpture Art Architecture Science Sculpture Interion Commerce Literature Interion Commerce Literature Interion Conservation Music Transportation Music Transportation Music Transportation Music Science Sculpture Interion Science Sculpture Interion Music Science Sculpture Interion Music Science Sculpture Interion Music Science S	storic Industry Issentian Science Science Interview Interview Science Science Interview Architecture Science Interview Architecture Interion Interview Inter	Abor iginal	L Education	Political (D)	Other (Specify)
Agriculture Invention Science Sculpture Architecture Lendscope Sculpture Conserver Literature Social/Human- Communications Military Theorer Conservation Music Transportation Transportation Music Transportation Transportation Music Transportation Transportation Music Transportation Transportation Music Transportation Science Conservation Music Transportation Conservation Music Conservation	culture Invention Science itecture Sculpture Architecture Social/Human- merce Literature munications Military ge Covered Bridge together with two other covered w n the town of Waterville and two bridges of the sam he adjoining town of Belvidere cross the North Bran moille River within a distance of about five miles, ge one of the most concentrated groups of covered br t. The five bridges are important and distinctive of the historic environment of the Lamoille River red bridges of Vermont are among its most cherished historic resources. About one hundred of the bridge altered only slightly, and many relate to other ts and villagescapes to form a unique historic envir calters of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes to recondition and protection of the Northeast, recent S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast, recent Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50.				(opecary)
Architecture Architecture Social/Human- Commerce Literature Social/Human- Commerce Covered Bridge together with two other covered pridges in the town of Waterville and two bridges of the sa type in the adjoining town of Belvidere cross the North Bra of the Lamoille River within a distance of about five miles comprising one of the most concentrated groups of covered b in Vermont. The five bridges are important and distinctive elements of the historic environment of the Lamoille River ralley. The covered bridges of Vermont are among its most cherished symbolic historic resources. About one hundred of the brid still stand in the state, the highest concentration by area covered bridges in the United State. ¹ Many of these bridge have been altered only slightly, and many relate to other structures and villagescapes to form a unique historic envi hent. Recently, however, various forces have caused drasti changes in the state. The covered bridges have become subj to increasingly intense and detrimental effects of those ch the Vermont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes t tend the recognition and protection of the National Registe Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered brid Lamonal Register 1. Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast Stephen Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RELEVED OFI 4 1974 NUTIONAL	<pre>iterure</pre>
Att Architecture Social/Human- Commerce Literature Havion Heating Multicry Havion Heater Havion Music Transportation of the State Algorithm Music Transportation Music Transportation Music Transportation Music Transportation Music Transportation of the State, the highest concentration by area covered bridges in the United State. Many of these bridge have been altered only slightly, and many relate to other structures and villagescapes to form a unique historic environment. The state. The covered bridges have become subj to increasingly intense and detrimental effects of those check the recognition and protection of the National Register Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridges to a majority of the remaining covered bridges for 4 1974 Muticipation Music Musi	Architecture Social/Human- merce Literature Iterian munications Military Theoter iterian significance ge Covered Bridge together with two other covered w n the town of Waterville and two bridges of the sam the adjoining town of Belvidere cross the North Bran moille River within a distance of about five miles, gg one of the most concentrated groups of covered br t. The five bridges are important and distinctive of the historic environment of the Lamoille River red bridges of Vermont are among its most cherished historic resources. About one hundred of the bridges altered only slightly, and many relate to other es and villagescapes to form a unique historic envir cently, however, various forces have caused drastic n the state. The covered bridges have become subject singly intense and detrimental effects of those char ne cognition and protection of the National Register Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridges Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast, ireene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast, ireene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50.
Literature interior Communications Muliferry Transportation Concervation Music Transportation TATEMENT OF SiGNIFICANCE TATEMENT OF SiGNIFICANCE The Lamoille River within a distance of about five miles comprising one of the most concentrated groups of covered bin Vermont. The five bridges are important and distinctive elements of the historic environment of the Lamoille River valley. The covered bridges of Vermont are among its most cherished symbolic historic resources. About one hundred of the brid still stand in the state, the highest concentration by area covered bridges in the United State. Many of these bridges have been altered only slightly, and many relate to other structures and villagescapes to form a unique historic envi- nent. Recently, however, various forces have caused drastic changes in the state. The covered bridges have become subj to increasingly intense and detrimental effects of those ch The Vermont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes the tend the recognition and protection of the National Register Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered brid Music Direct Sites, therefore, brid AutoDNAL NETCHNEL	<pre>merce Literature Iterian munications Mulitary Theoter Iterian munications Mulitary Theoter Iterian Music Transportation Iterian Music Iterian</pre>	Art
Conservation Music Transportation	Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast, recommendation of the state of	Commerce	Literature
TATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE The Village Covered Bridge together with two other covered pridges in the town of Waterville and two bridges of the sa type in the adjoining town of Belvidere cross the North Bra of the Lamoille River within a distance of about five miles comprising one of the most concentrated groups of covered b in Vermont. The five bridges are important and distinctive elements of the historic environment of the Lamoille River ralley. The covered bridges of Vermont are among its most cherished symbolic historic resources. About one hundred of the brid still stand in the state, the highest concentration by area covered bridges in the United State. ¹ Many of these bridge have been altered only slightly, and many relate to other structures and villagescapes to form a unique historic envi nent. Recently, however, various forces have caused drasti- changes in the state. The covered bridges have become subj to increasingly intense and detrimental effects of those ch The Vermont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes t tend the recognition and protection of the National Register Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered brid stephen Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECENED 0674 974 within Ali	ge Covered Bridge together with two other covered w n the town of Waterville and two bridges of the sam the adjoining town of Belvidere cross the North Bran moille River within a distance of about five miles, gg one of the most concentrated groups of covered br t. The five bridges are important and distinctive of the historic environment of the Lamoille River red bridges of Vermont are among its most cherished historic resources. About one hundred of the bridg ind in the state, the highest concentration by area oridges in the United State. Many of these bridges altered only slightly, and many relate to other es and villagescapes to form a unique historic envir cently, however, various forces have caused drastic in the state. The covered bridges have become subje usingly intense and detrimental effects of those cha ont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes to recognition and protection of the National Register Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridge Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast, GGI 4 974 untlooval	Communications	Military	Theater
The Village Covered Bridge together with two other covered pridges in the town of Waterville and two bridges of the sat type in the adjoining town of Belvidere cross the North Bra of the Lamoille River within a distance of about five miles comprising one of the most concentrated groups of covered b in Vermont. The five bridges are important and distinctive elements of the historic environment of the Lamoille River valley. The covered bridges of Vermont are among its most cherished symbolic historic resources. About one hundred of the brid still stand in the state, the highest concentration by area covered bridges in the United State. Many of these bridge have been altered only slightly, and many relate to other structures and villagescapes to form a unique historic envi nent. Recently, however, various forces have caused drasti changes in the state. The covered bridges have become subj to increasingly intense and detrimental effects of those ch The Vermont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes t tend the recognition and protection of the National Registe Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered brid the define Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50.	ge Covered Bridge together with two other covered w n the town of Waterville and two bridges of the sam he adjoining town of Belvidere cross the North Bran moille River within a distance of about five miles, g one of the most concentrated groups of covered br t. The five bridges are important and distinctive of the historic environment of the Lamoille River red bridges of Vermont are among its most cherished historic resources. About one hundred of the bridge ind in the state, the highest concentration by area bridges in the United State. Many of these bridges altered only slightly, and many relate to other se and villagescapes to form a unique historic envir cently, however, various forces have caused drastic in the state. The covered bridges have become subject singly intense and detrimental effects of those chase on Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes to recognition and protection of the National Register Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridges Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast, GCI 4 974 NOTIAL RECEIVED OCI 4 974 NOTIAL	Conservation	Music	X Transportation	-
The Village Covered Bridge together with two other covered pridges in the town of Waterville and two bridges of the sat type in the adjoining town of Belvidere cross the North Bra of the Lamoille River within a distance of about five miles comprising one of the most concentrated groups of covered b in Vermont. The five bridges are important and distinctive elements of the historic environment of the Lamoille River valley. The covered bridges of Vermont are among its most cherished symbolic historic resources. About one hundred of the brid still stand in the state, the highest concentration by area covered bridges in the United State. Many of these bridge have been altered only slightly, and many relate to other structures and villagescapes to form a unique historic envi nent. Recently, however, various forces have caused drasti changes in the state. The covered bridges have become subj to increasingly intense and detrimental effects of those ch The Vermont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes t tend the recognition and protection of the National Registe Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered brid the define Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50.	ge Covered Bridge together with two other covered w n the town of Waterville and two bridges of the sam he adjoining town of Belvidere cross the North Bran moille River within a distance of about five miles, g one of the most concentrated groups of covered br t. The five bridges are important and distinctive of the historic environment of the Lamoille River red bridges of Vermont are among its most cherished historic resources. About one hundred of the bridg ind in the state, the highest concentration by area oridges in the United State. Many of these bridges altered only slightly, and many relate to other se and villagescapes to form a unique historic envir cently, however, various forces have caused drastic in the state. The covered bridges have become subject singly intense and detrimental effects of those cha ant Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes to recognition and protection of the National Register Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridge Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast, GCI 4 974 DCI 4 974 DCI 4 974 DCI 4 974	STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE bridges in the town of Waterville and two bridges of the satype in the adjoining town of Belvidere cross the North Bra of the Lamoille River within a distance of about five miles comprising one of the most concentrated groups of covered bin Vermont. The five bridges are important and distinctive elements of the historic environment of the Lamoille River valley. The covered bridges of Vermont are among its most cherished symbolic historic resources. About one hundred of the brid still stand in the state, the highest concentration by area covered bridges in the United State. ⁴ Many of these bridges have been altered only slightly, and many relate to other structures and villagescapes to form a unique historic environment. Recently, however, various forces have caused drasti to increasingly intense and detrimental effects of those che then the recognition and protection of the National Register Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridges and protection, Vt., 1974, p. 50.	n the town of Waterville and two bridges of the sam the adjoining town of Belvidere cross the North Bran moille River within a distance of about five miles, go one of the most concentrated groups of covered br it. The five bridges are important and distinctive of the historic environment of the Lamoille River red bridges of Vermont are among its most cherished historic resources. About one hundred of the bridg and in the state, the highest concentration by area oridges in the United State. Many of these bridges a latered only slightly, and many relate to other es and villagescapes to form a unique historic envir cently, however, various forces have caused drastic in the state. The covered bridges have become subje singly intense and detrimental effects of those cha ont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes to recognition and protection of the National Register Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridge type in the adjoining town of Belvidere cross the North Bra of the Lamoille River within a distance of about five miles comprising one of the most concentrated groups of covered b in Vermont. The five bridges are important and distinctive elements of the historic environment of the Lamoille River valley. The covered bridges of Vermont are among its most cherished symbolic historic resources. About one hundred of the brid still stand in the state, the highest concentration by area covered bridges in the United State. Many of these bridge have been altered only slightly, and many relate to other structures and villagescapes to form a unique historic envi ment. Recently, however, various forces have caused drasti changes in the state. The covered bridges have become subj to increasingly intense and detrimental effects of those ch The Vermont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes t tend the recognition and protection of the National Registe Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered brid the distoric Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridges is the distoric Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridges to increasing Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50.	he adjoining town of Belvidere cross the North Bran moille River within a distance of about five miles, ag one of the most concentrated groups of covered br it. The five bridges are important and distinctive of the historic environment of the Lamoille River red bridges of Vermont are among its most cherished historic resources. About one hundred of the bridge and in the state, the highest concentration by area ridges in the United State. Many of these bridges altered only slightly, and many relate to other each villagescapes to form a unique historic envir cently, however, various forces have caused drastic in the state. The covered bridges have become subje singly intense and detrimental effects of those cha ant Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes to recognition and protection of the National Register Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridge of the Lamoille River within a distance of about five miles comprising one of the most concentrated groups of covered b in Vermont. The five bridges are important and distinctive elements of the historic environment of the Lamoille River valley. The covered bridges of Vermont are among its most cherished symbolic historic resources. About one hundred of the brid still stand in the state, the highest concentration by area covered bridges in the United State. Many of these bridge have been altered only slightly, and many relate to other structures and villagescapes to form a unique historic envi ment. Recently, however, various forces have caused drasti changes in the state. The covered bridges have become subj to increasingly intense and detrimental effects of those ch The Vermont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes t tend the recognition and protection of the National Registe Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered brid to find the recognition and protection of the National Registe Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered brid the Vermon Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50.	moille River within a distance of about five miles, g one of the most concentrated groups of covered br t. The five bridges are important and distinctive of the historic environment of the Lamoille River red bridges of Vermont are among its most cherished historic resources. About one hundred of the bridge and in the state, the highest concentration by area oridges in the United State. Many of these bridges a latered only slightly, and many relate to other as and villagescapes to form a unique historic envir cently, however, various forces have caused drastic in the state. The covered bridges have become subject singly intense and detrimental effects of those cha ont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes to recognition and protection of the National Register Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridges
Comprising one of the most concentrated groups of covered bin Vermont. The five bridges are important and distinctive elements of the historic environment of the Lamoille River valley. The covered bridges of Vermont are among its most cherished symbolic historic resources. About one hundred of the brid still stand in the state, the highest concentration by area covered bridges in the United State. Many of these bridge have been altered only slightly, and many relate to other structures and villagescapes to form a unique historic environment. Recently, however, various forces have caused drastic changes in the state. The covered bridges have become subj to increasingly intense and detrimental effects of those changes in the state. The covered bridges of the Northest tend the recognition and protection of the National Register Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridge bridges to a majority of the remaining covered bridge bridge bridges and protection, Vt., 1974, p. 50.	Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast , Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast , recomparison of the remaining th	type in the adjoi	ining town of	Belvidere cross	the North Bran
in Vermont. The five bridges are important and distinctive elements of the historic environment of the Lamoille River valley. The covered bridges of Vermont are among its most cherished symbolic historic resources. About one hundred of the brid still stand in the state, the highest concentration by area covered bridges in the United State. Many of these bridge have been altered only slightly, and many relate to other structures and villagescapes to form a unique historic envi ment. Recently, however, various forces have caused drasti changes in the state. The covered bridges have become subj to increasingly intense and detrimental effects of those ch The Vermont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes t tend the recognition and protection of the National Registe Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridges to a majority of the remaining covered bridges to a majority of the remaining covered bridges of the Vermont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes t tend the recognition and protection of the National Registe Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridges the district Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridges and the press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50.	At. The five bridges are important and distinctive of the historic environment of the Lamoille River red bridges of Vermont are among its most cherished historic resources. About one hundred of the bridg and in the state, the highest concentration by area oridges in the United State. Many of these bridges a altered only slightly, and many relate to other es and villagescapes to form a unique historic envir cently, however, various forces have caused drastic in the state. The covered bridges have become subje singly intense and detrimental effects of those cha ont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes to recognition and protection of the National Register Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridg 	of the Lamoille R	River within a	distance of abo	ut five miles, elements of the historic environment of the Lamoille River valley. The covered bridges of Vermont are among its most cherished symbolic historic resources. About one hundred of the brid still stand in the state, the highest concentration by area covered bridges in the United State. Many of these bridge have been altered only slightly, and many relate to other structures and villagescapes to form a unique historic environment. Recently, however, various forces have caused drastic changes in the state. The covered bridges have become subj to increasingly intense and detrimental effects of those charter of the vermont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes the tend the recognition and protection of the National Register Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridges bridges of the Northeast Stephen Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50.	of the historic environment of the Lamoille River red bridges of Vermont are among its most cherished historic resources. About one hundred of the bridge ond in the state, the highest concentration by area oridges in the United State. Many of these bridges altered only slightly, and many relate to other es and villagescapes to form a unique historic envir cently, however, various forces have caused drastic in the state. The covered bridges have become subject isingly intense and detrimental effects of those cha ont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes to recognition and protection of the National Register Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridge 	comprising one of	the most con	centrated groups	of covered br
Aralley. State of Vermont are among its most cherished symbolic historic resources. About one hundred of the brid still stand in the state, the highest concentration by area covered bridges in the United State. Many of these bridge have been altered only slightly, and many relate to other structures and villagescapes to form a unique historic envinent. Recently, however, various forces have caused drastic changes in the state. The covered bridges have become subj to increasingly intense and detrimental effects of those characteristic of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes the tend the recognition and protection of the National Register Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridges of the Northeast Stephen Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50.	Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast, Bridges to a majority of the remaining covered bridge Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast, manual for the state of the remaining the state bridges manual for the state of the state
The covered bridges of Vermont are among its most cherished symbolic historic resources. About one hundred of the brid still stand in the state, the highest concentration by area covered bridges in the United State. Many of these bridge have been altered only slightly, and many relate to other structures and villagescapes to form a unique historic envi ment. Recently, however, various forces have caused drasti changes in the state. The covered bridges have become subj to increasingly intense and detrimental effects of those ch The Vermont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes t tend the recognition and protection of the National Registe Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered brid Stephen Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50.	historic resources. About one hundred of the bridg and in the state, the highest concentration by area oridges in the United State. Many of these bridges a altered only slightly, and many relate to other as and villagescapes to form a unique historic envir cently, however, various forces have caused drastic in the state. The covered bridges have become subjects usingly intense and detrimental effects of those char ont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes to recognition and protection of the National Register Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridge Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast , Get A 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED OCT A 1974, p. 50.	1	nistoric envir	onment of the La	moille River symbolic historic resources. About one hundred of the brid still stand in the state, the highest concentration by area covered bridges in the United State. ¹ Many of these bridge have been altered only slightly, and many relate to other structures and villagescapes to form a unique historic envi ment. Recently, however, various forces have caused drastic changes in the state. The covered bridges have become subj to increasingly intense and detrimental effects of those ch The Vermont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes t tend the recognition and protection of the National Registe Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered brid Stephen Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED OCT 4 1974 NATIONAL	historic resources. About one hundred of the bridg and in the state, the highest concentration by area oridges in the United State. Many of these bridges a altered only slightly, and many relate to other as and villagescapes to form a unique historic envir cently, however, various forces have caused drastic in the state. The covered bridges have become subjects singly intense and detrimental effects of those char ont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes to recognition and protection of the National Register Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridge Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast , breene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED OCT 4 1974 NATIONAL	valley.
symbolic historic resources. About one hundred of the brid still stand in the state, the highest concentration by area covered bridges in the United State. ¹ Many of these bridge have been altered only slightly, and many relate to other structures and villagescapes to form a unique historic envi ment. Recently, however, various forces have caused drastic changes in the state. The covered bridges have become subj to increasingly intense and detrimental effects of those ch The Vermont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes t tend the recognition and protection of the National Registe Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered brid Stephen Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED OCT 4 1974 NATIONAL	historic resources. About one hundred of the bridg and in the state, the highest concentration by area oridges in the United State. Many of these bridges a altered only slightly, and many relate to other as and villagescapes to form a unique historic envir cently, however, various forces have caused drastic in the state. The covered bridges have become subjects singly intense and detrimental effects of those char ont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes to recognition and protection of the National Register Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridge Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast , breene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED OCT 4 1974 NATIONAL
1. Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridge have been altered only slightly, and many relate to other structures and villagescapes to form a unique historic envi ment. Recently, however, various forces have caused drastic changes in the state. The covered bridges have become subj to increasingly intense and detrimental effects of those ch The Vermont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes t tend the recognition and protection of the National Registe Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered brid Received Received Received NationAl	Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast , Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridge Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast , Brite Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50.
have been altered only slightly, and many relate to other structures and villagescapes to form a unique historic envinent. Recently, however, various forces have caused drastichanges in the state. The covered bridges have become subjuto increasingly intense and detrimental effects of those charter of the Vermont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes t tend the recognition and protection of the National Register Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridges of the Northeast Stephen Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50.	Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast , Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast , Received	Symbolic nistoric	resources.	About one hundre	u or the bridg
have been altered only slightly, and many relate to other structures and villagescapes to form a unique historic envinent. Recently, however, various forces have caused drastichanges in the state. The covered bridges have become subjuto increasingly intense and detrimental effects of those charter of the Vermont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes t tend the recognition and protection of the National Register Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridges of the Northeast Stephen Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50.	Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast , Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast , Received	still stand in th	ie state, the	state 1 Marrie	those bridges structures and villagescapes to form a unique historic envi ment. Recently, however, various forces have caused drastic changes in the state. The covered bridges have become subjuct to increasingly intense and detrimental effects of those characteristic sites, therefore, wishes the tend the recognition and protection of the National Register Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered brid 1. Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast Stephen Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED ACTIONAL	Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast , Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast , Brete Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50.	covered orlages I	In the United	otate. Many OI	to to other nent. Recently, however, various forces have caused drastichanges in the state. The covered bridges have become subjut of increasingly intense and detrimental effects of those characteristic detriment detrimental effects of those characteristic detrimental effects of the vermont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes the tend the recognition and protection of the National Register detrimental effects of the analysis of the remaining covered bride detrimental effects of the Northeast Stephen Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED and the detrimental effects of the Northeast effects	Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast , Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast , Breene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50.
changes in the state. The covered bridges have become subj to increasingly intense and detrimental effects of those ch The Vermont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes t tend the recognition and protection of the National Registe Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered brid 	Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast , Breene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50.
to increasingly intense and detrimental effects of those ch The Vermont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes t tend the recognition and protection of the National Registe Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered brid 	Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast , Brecene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50.
The Vermont Division of Historic Sites, therefore, wishes t tend the recognition and protection of the National Registe Historic Places to a majority of the remaining covered brid 	Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast Braces Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50.
1. Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast Stephen Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50.	Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast Breene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50.	The Vermont Divis	sion of Histor	ic Sites thoraf	ore wishes +
1. Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast Stephen Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED	Places to a majority of the remaining covered bridg Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast Freene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED OCT 4 1974 NATIONAL	tend the recognit	tion and nrot	action of the Mat	ional Posisto
1. Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast Stephen Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED OCT 4 1974	Richard S. Allen, Covered Bridges of the Northeast Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED OCT 4 1974	Historic Places +	to a majority	of the remaining	covered brid
Stephen Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED OCT 4 1974	Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED OCT 4 1974 NATIONAL	LISCOLLE LACES (to a majority	or the remaining	Covered DLIGS
Stephen Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED OCT 4 1974	Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED OCT 4 1974 NATIONAL
Stephen Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED OCT 4 1974	Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED OCT 4 1974 NATIONAL	1
Stephen Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED OCT 4 1974	Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED OCT 4 1974
Stephen Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED OCT 4 1974	Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED OCT 4 1974 NATIONAL
Stephen Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED OCT 4 1974	Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED OCT 4 1974 NATIONAL
Stephen Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED OCT 4 1974	Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED
Stephen Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED OCT 4 1974	Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974, p. 50. RECEIVED OCT 4 1974 NATIONAL
RECEIVED DCT 4 1974	RECEIVED DCT 4 1974	1. Richard	S. Allen. Cov	vered Bridges of	the Northeast
2 NATIONAL	9 NATIONAL A	1. Richard Stephen Greene Pi	S. Allen, Cov ress, Brattlet	vered Bridges of	the Northeast
2 NATIONAL	9 NATIONAL A	1. Richard Stephen Greene Pi	S. Allen, Co v ress, Brattle	vered Bridges of Doro, Vt., 1974,	the Northeast, p. 50.
2 NATIONAL	9 NATIONAL A	1. Richard Stephen Greene Pi	S. Allen, Cov ress, Brattle	vered Bridges of Doro, Vt., 1974,	the Northeast, p. 50.
2 NATIONAL	9 NATIONAL A	1. Richard Stephen Greene Pi	S. Allen, Co r ress, Brattle	vered Bridges of Doro, Vt., 1974,	the Northeast, p. 50.
2 NATIONAL	9 NATIONAL A	1. Richard Stephen Greene Pi	S. Allen, Cov ress, Brattle	vered Bridges of Soro, Vt., 1974,	the Northeast, p. 50.
2 NATIONAL	21 NATIONAL F	1. Richard Stephen Greene Pi	S. Allen, Co v ress, Brattle	vered Bridges of Soro, Vt., 1974,	P. 50. RECEIVED
REGISTER	REGISTER C	1. Richard Stephen Greene Pi	S. Allen, Cov ress, Brattle	vered Bridges of boro, Vt., 1974,	P. 50. RECEIVED
REGION A	STITT 19	1. Richard Stephen Greene Pi	S. Allen, Cov ress, Brattle	vered Bridges of Doro, Vt., 1974,	P. 50. RECEIVED
	CETTER S	1. Richard Stephen Greene Pi	S. Allen, Co r ress, Brattle	vered Bridges of boro, Vt., 1974,	P. 50. RECEIVED DCT 4 1974
		1. Richard Stephen Greene Pi	S. Allen, Co r ress, Brattlet	vered Bridges of boro, Vt., 1974,	P. 50. RECEIVED DCT 4 1974

9.	MAJOR	BIBLIOGRAPHICAL RI	EFERENCES									I
 Hagerman, Robert L., Covered Bridges of Lamoille County, Robert L. Hagerman, Morrisville, Vt., 1972. Allen, Richard Sanders, Covered Bridges of the Northeast, The Stephen Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1974 (rev. ed.).
10	10. GEOGRAPHICAL DATA
LATITUDE AND LONGITUDE COORDINATES
DEFINING A RECTANCE LOCATING THE PROPERTY 0 DEFINING THE LEWITER POINT OF A PROPERTY
i	CORNER	LATITUDE	LONGITU	DE		1	ATITUDE			LONGITUD	E	18/676620 4950 7.30
		Degrees Minutes Seconds		Seconds		Degrees	Minutes	Seconds		. Minutes	Seconds	10/01
	NW	• • • • • • •	2010	"		44°	41	24	72°	46	17	4950730
	NE		• •					4 T	12			11-
	SE 1		. 52.0.1 .			ŀ						00
		IMATE ACREAGE OF NOM	INATED PROPE	2 7 7 .	!	1
		L STATES AND COUNTIES				One a		OUNTY BO		ES		S
	STATE:	L STATES AND COUNTES		CODE	-+-	COUNTY		711			CODE	m
		• • • • •	•		-	000111		Val -		ČN –		m
	STATE:		······································	CODE		COUNTY:		× RECE	IVEU	ET.	CODE	_
				ļ				- ~ ~ ~ ~		-15-		z
	STATE:		•	CODE	4	COUNTY:	0	001 4		E	CODE	s
		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·			\bot		-13		IONAL	 		_
	STATE:	•		CODE	-1	COUNTY:	5	REG	ISTER		CODE	-
				 				}		 	 	77
II. FORM PREPARED BY											C
		H. Henry, His	toric Sit	es Re	es	earch	er					C
Ī	ORGANIZ		· · ·	· · · ·					DATE	Ξ
	Vermo	ont Division o	f Histori	c Sit	te	S			1.7/	/11/74	(t	-
		AND NUMBER: Lion Building										0
					T	· 				00101	L CODE	z
	CITY OR	belier			S	TATE	· Vor	mont			CODE	S
195		LIAISON OFFICER C
	STATE	LIAISON OFFICER CL	RIFICATION		+	N	ATIONAL	. REGIJI	CRYCR	TICATION
						,
		e designated State Liaise			Į.	I hereby	certify th	nat this pr	operty is	s included	in the
	•	Historic Preservation A 5), I hereby nominate this				Nationa	Register		·	2 4 4 1	1 e
		•			l		1	\sim
		National Register and c ated according to the c-it	-			/	C L	11 AM	lan
		たけがもち しんしょう しんしょう ほうちょう			ł	E	er l	ne		ser_ forth by the National Park Service. The recommended level of significance of this nomination is:
		ational 🗌 State						, ,	_
	14		X _				121	16/7	\mathcal{A}
		Al-II - R	F.			Date
	Name	William Q.	man			ATTEST	••		/
		¢					. /	4	5
		Dimension		• .		ىتەر		2	-TC.
	Title	Director of H	ISTOTYC S	ites		AST	1 Die	iVSA	10.	mld	y
-		e Historic Pre	servation	L	1	NCE	Keeper	of The N	lational	Register /	1-
	Offic	cer a /aa /a	7 11			_ (/	A.	1 -	je	70/
	Date -	9/30/7	• †			Date V	/	wel		-11	4
										-	/

☆ U.S. GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE : 1973-729-147/1442 3-1