Main (SE) facade

A black and white photograph of the Freeman Chapel C.M.E. Church. The building is constructed of dark brick with a prominent portico supported by four white columns. The entrance features a set of wide steps with black handrails. Above the columns is a decorative pediment with a central plaque. The plaque contains the text "FREEMAN CHAPEL" on the top line, "1866 C.M.E. CHURCH" on the second line, and "1926" on the third line. The roofline is decorated with a series of arched windows, each topped with a white triangular pediment. Two spherical light fixtures are mounted on the brick walls flanking the portico.
