

Figure 2. Map of Barrett Lakes restoration area and surrounding aquatic habitat and trails. The restoration lakes and ponds are circled in dark blue and the restoration creek is also shown in dark blue. The dotted black line shows the Bishop Pass Trail, a popular day-use trail and pass trail connected to the John Muir and Pacific Crest Trails to the west. The solid red line shows the trail used by hikers to access Barrett Lakes, and other areas of Palisade Basin further east.