A black and white photograph of a two-story brick building. A prominent, jagged crack runs diagonally across the upper left portion of the brickwork. The ground floor features a storefront with a dark, reflective sign that reads "SPORT SHACK" in large, white, sans-serif capital letters. Below the sign is a glass display window filled with various t-shirts and clothing items. A street lamp stands in front of the window. The upper floor has three large, recessed rectangular panels.
