

United States Department of the Interior
National Park Service

6/27/91

National Register of Historic Places Continuation Sheet

Section number _____ Page _____

Canjilon Mountain Lookout Cabin Rio Arriba County, NEW MEXICO
(National Forest Fire Lookouts in the Southwestern Region TR

ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTATION - Name Change to Victor Ortega Cabin

87 00 2456

Approved _____

for Keeper

Delores Byers 7/3/91

United States Department of the Interior
National Park Service

JUN 27 1991

National Register of Historic Places Continuation Sheet

National Forest Fire Lookouts in the Southwestern Region, USDA Forest Service

Section number 7 Page 53

Notification of Name Change

Old Name: Canjilon Mountain Lookout Cabin
Carson National Forest
Rio Arriba County, New Mexico
(See Continuation Sheet, Item 7, Page 21)

New Name: Victor Ortega Cabin

The name of the cabin has been changed to honor the memory of Victor Ortega, a Forest Service employee killed in the cabin by lightning in 1924. An interpretive sign has been erected at the site telling the story of the cabin and Mr. Ortega.

Please make this name change in your records and data base.

Federal Representative:

Evan J. DeBlois
Historic Preservation Officer
USDA Forest Service

6-20-91
Date