Site Plan (and boundary description and justification for N.R. sites):

Beginning at a point on the southern edge of KY 12 that is 71 ft. west of the western edge of the drive (A), 300 ft. southward along a tree line and fence to intersection with another fence (B); 225 ft. eastward along rear yard fence to intersection with another fence (C); 150 ft. northward along fence to northwestern corner of garage (D); 30 ft. east along northern side of garage to its northeastern corner (E); 150 ft. northward along fence to edge of KY 12 (F); 225 ft. westward along southern edge of KY 12 to point of origin.

The boundaries were selected to enclose the house and domestic-related area and are defined by fences on the west and south, a tree line and fence on the west, and KY 12 on the north. In addition to the house, the area includes three outbuildings--a shed (C), cellar (C), and garage (NC)--as well as one structure (cistern-C).

45. Description and House Plan:

Exterior:

roof, brick foundation, entrance lobby projects outward and is sheltered by an elaborate gabled porch with a spindle frieze and panelled gables, elaborate overall consisting of jig-sawn brackets, chevron siding and diamond-shaped shingles on projecting north facade; shingling also in east and west gables and continues as a skirting around the entire house, carved window trim, 1/1 sash, shed-roofed addition (frame) on east side of ell.

1-story, frame, T-plan without passage, hipped

Outbuildings:

Included is a frame outbuilding and an underground cellar which contribute to the site and a non-contributing frame garage. A contributing cistern, like the outbuilding and cellar, are integral parts of the original domeetic space and demonstrate the function of a rural house.

The nominated area includes three contributing buildings and one contributing structure, as well as one non-contributing building.
