1934 Aerial Survey Map

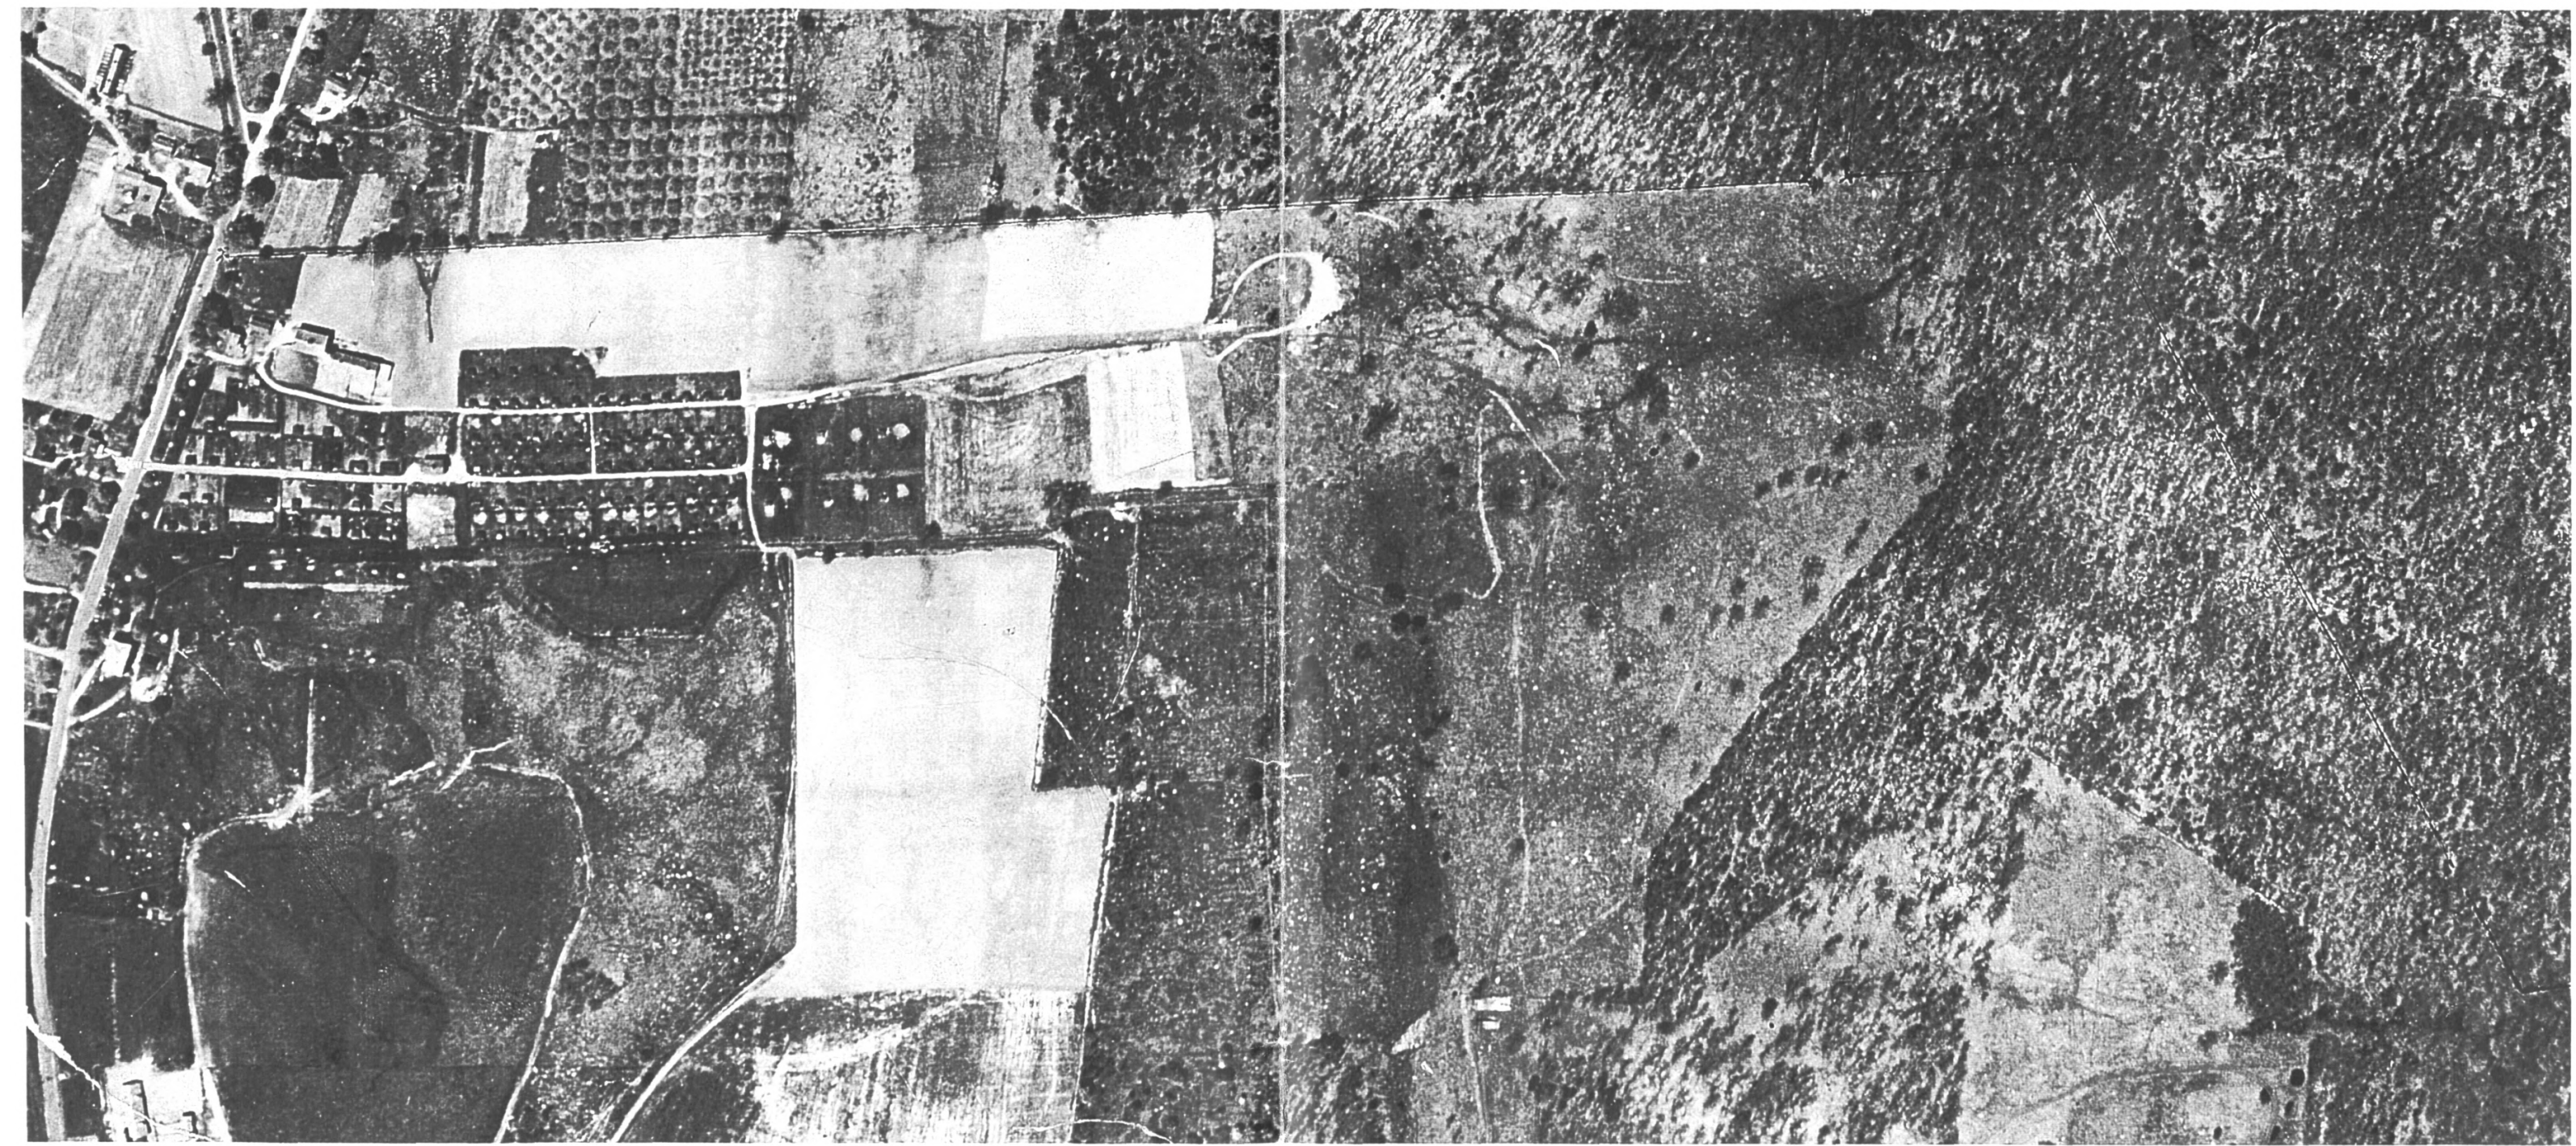

Photo Exhibit A

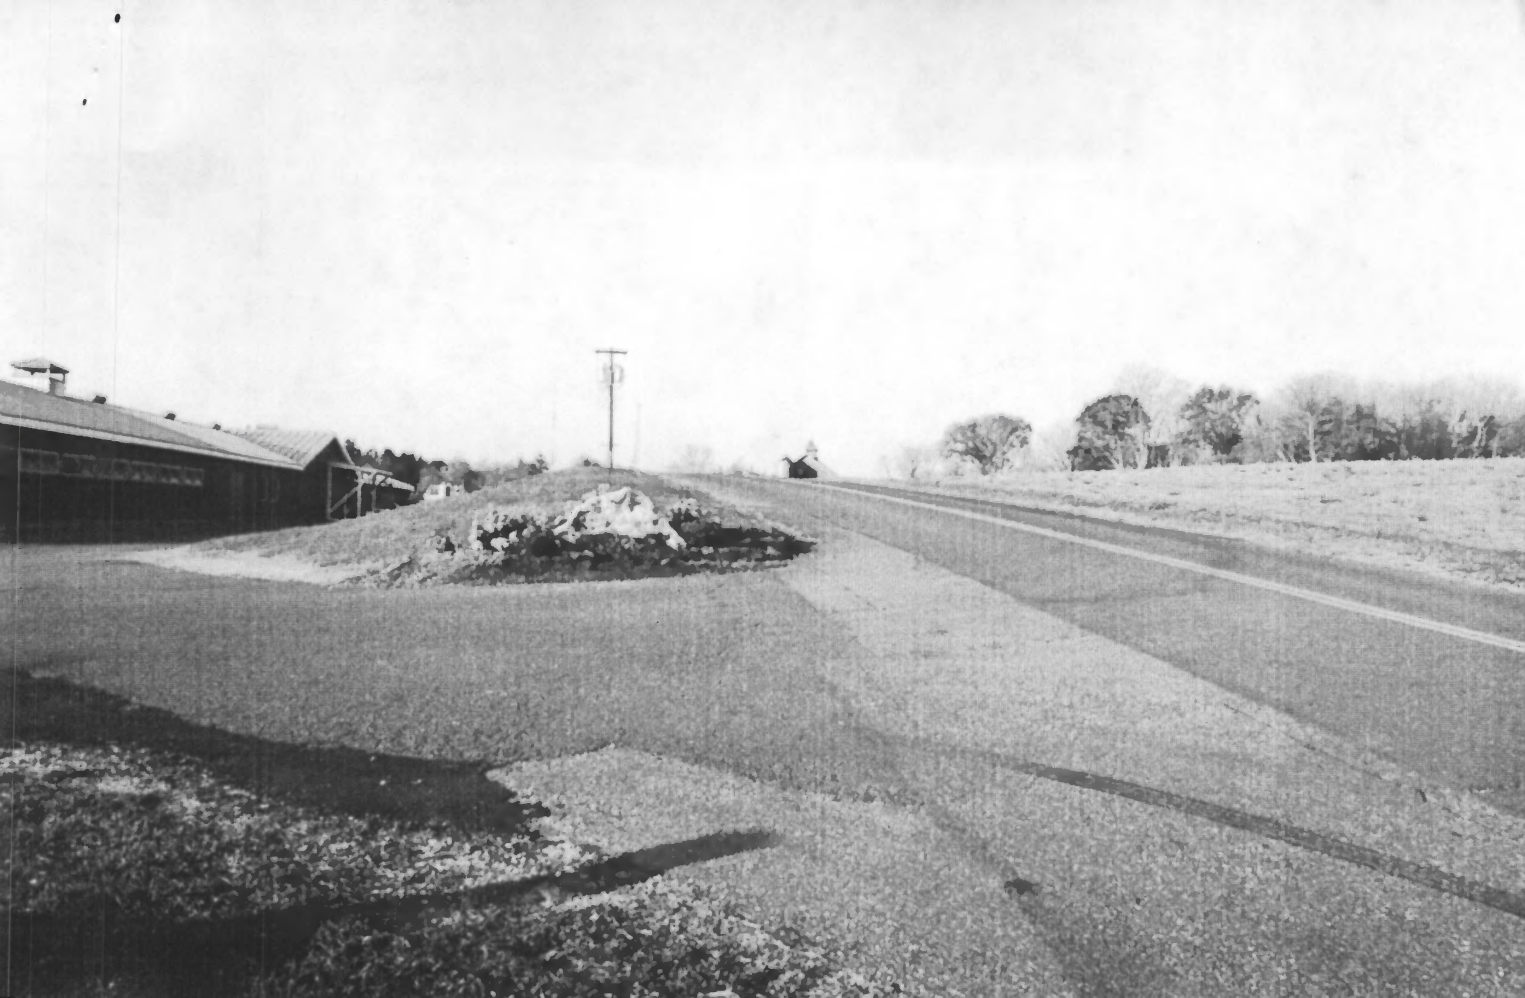

- 1-4. Views west along northern acreage to barn, proceeding from lesser rise to crest.
Distances correlate to Kellogg Dairy Barn at left.
5. View west from upper Kellogg driveway. Coops remaining from International Egg-Laying Competition are at left.

Photo Exhibit B

1. View east from the Farwell Barn, showing northern acreage past the crest east of the barn to the tree line of the lesser rise near midpoint of acreage.
2. The same view as seen from Route 195, slightly more to the south.

1. View west from Route 195 South. The poultry buildings on the right date from the 1930s and are on the southern portion of the Farwell home farm.
2. View from Horsebarn Hill north showing the Farwell Barn and the historic acreage.
- 3-4. Views south to Horsebarn Hill and bordering farm buildings.

- 1-3. Sequential views on Route 195 South approaching the university. Note the green tarp of the barn and the University of Connecticut sign.
4. View west from W Lot, UConn's largest surface parking facility. Horsebarn Hill Road is directly across Route 195.
5. View east from the Kellogg Dairy Barn parking lot. Many visitors come to this barn. Coops remaining from International Egg-Laying Competition are at left.
6. View northeast on Route 195 North, departing UConn.
7. View from Agricultural Biotechnology Laboratory.
8. View across Mirror Lake, a favorite spot on campus, showing barn in background.
9. View from UConn's south entrance on Route 195. Barn is in background.
