

Richmond, Va., June 18th 191

Mrs. M. L. Walker Grand Sect, and Pres. of the St. Luke's Bank.

My Dear madam it is with much pleasure; I wish to acknowledge your kindness with many thanks.

For I recieved your token of appreciation for the sermon I preached to the St. Luke's.

I wish to express my great love for you as a great woman: and also for your inestimatable worth to us as a race. May God's blessing continue to be yours to enjoy all of your life.

For as Moses was especially fitted to lead the children of Isreal, so are you especially fitted, called and appointed to do this great work you have done, and is doing. I am yours truly

R. V. Peyton

P.S. Madam, ^{and} in the order love you more, and none respect you higher than I. I pray for your continued success.
