Section number Amendment Page 1

Due to expansion of facilities for the University of Arizona, which intruded into the northernmost two blocks of the Pie Allen Historic District, seven contributing properties have been lost. The Arizona State Historic Preservation Office requests the concurrence of the Keeper of the National Register in removing these properties from the district's list of contributors. Also, the Arizona SHPO requests concurrence on the revised district boundary, which removes the area where these properties were formerly located.

The six demolished properties are 829, 835/837, 841, 843, 903, and 905 East 6th Street. One property, 907 East 6th Street, was moved.

The Pie Allen Historic District now contains 194 contributing resources.

Good morning Lisa:

On Friday afternoon Bill and I researched the Pie Allen map and determined that the scale is:

1" = 160' and the top of the map is North. If you want me to mail you a hard copy of the map let me know.

Attached are the 2 amendments -

#1 - Amendment to Pie Allen Historic District (Boundary Decrease). The house at 907 E. 6th Street was moved to 307 East 5th Street in West University. The other 6 houses were demolished.

#2 - Amendment to West University Historic District. Moved house from Pie Allen HD to West University HD. Amendment provides summary and recommendation from SHPO for making it a contributor in the new location.

Thank you for all your help.
