

Figure 6. Mound A, Shiloh Indian Mounds Site, Mississippian Period mound as seen from the ceremonial plaza, looking east. Photo taken February 1988.

Figure 6. Largest mound in the Shiloh Indian Mound Group is Mound A. Mound A is a Late Mississippian temple mound.

Figure 7. Mound G is in the center background. Small house mound is in the left foreground.

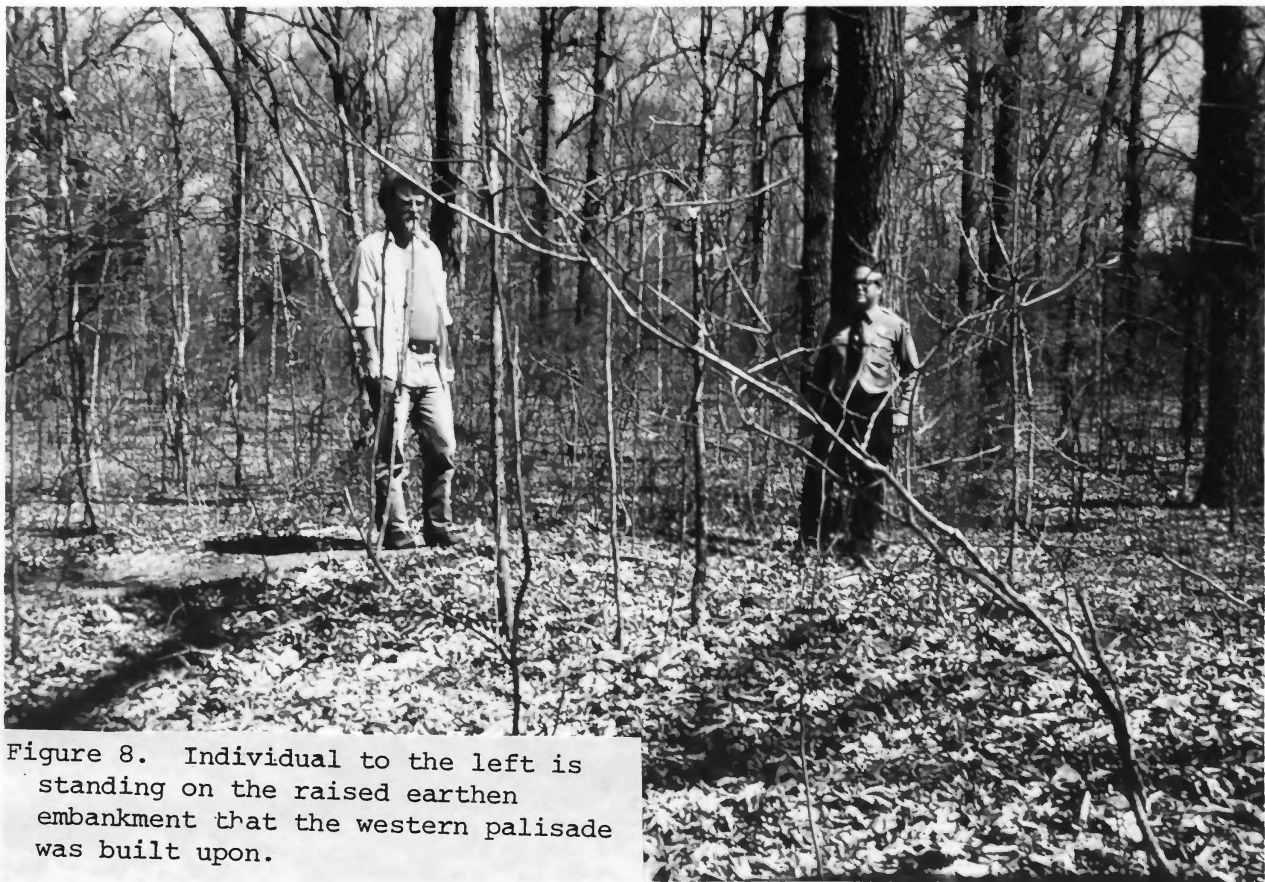

Figure 8. Individual to the left is standing on the raised earthen embankment that the western palisade was built upon.

Figure 13. Restored Mound C, Late Woodland Burial Mound, within the Shiloh Indian Mounds Site. Investigated in 1899, and 1933-34. Photograph taken February 1988.