

CREATIVE SECLUSION -- Each year the MacDowell Colony in Peterborough, New Hampshire, provides needed seclusion for about 120 writers, composers, and artists in studio cottages such as this one tucked in among the trees. More than 1,500 colonists have stayed there since the late composer Edward MacDowell and his wife shared their farm with a sculptor and a writer in 1907. Photo from IPS. (67-3693.
