Enclosure 7. Photo of Postoffice Oak, Main Street, Council Grove, Kansas.

A cache at the base of this tree served as a postoffice for travelers on the Santa Fe Trail from 1825 to 1847. Ceremonies dedicating the Kansas Centennial Commemorative Stamp and opening the First Day Sale of the stamp were held under the branches of this oak May 10, 1961.

OLD HAYS TAVERN

Enclosure 8. Photo of Hays Tavern, Main Street, Council Grove, Kansas.

Seth M. Hays, the first white settler at Council Grove, established his home and trading post in 1847 in a log cabin just west of the Neosho river on the north side of the Santa Fe Trail. The present structure, erected in 1857, has undergone several changes but still retains basic parts of the original building.
