OLD SALEM - Winston-Salem, N. C.

OLD SALEM - Winston-Salem, N. C.

As many as forty persons could be served at each meal prepared here in the kitchen of SALEM TAVERN (1784), during the one hundred years that it served as one of the best known inns in the South. Visitors to the TAVERN, now an OLD SALEM exhibit building, are always interested in the variety of kitchen utensils to be seen near the twin fireplaces of its kitchen.

OLD SALEM - Winston-Salem, N. C.

North Carolina's first two fire engines were housed on Salem Square in 1803.

The MARKET-FIREHOUSE today is one of Old Salem's exhibit buildings.
