

This building, facing the river front, was used by the John Jacob Astor fur company for a trading post.

Photocopy from La Prairie des Chiens, Evans and Earll, p. 7.

consideration... wood had acquired ownership from | diers were buried at another part | S. Infantry, whose remains had

Old John Jacob Astor Fur Trading Post on River Front Now Used as Repair Shop

tion for it pletion, al
a wagon
the Missis
One of
for travel
from Prai
ber campe
was know
now Fed
route was
by a part
the versa
trepid pio
lawyer, J
Wisconsin
ceived, a ment as Chippewa
Superior
Brunson

first been burying
and were cemetery tive of uate of the arm
through by his commiss
eka, wh
by liqu
hanged,
ing the
est grie
Only

Photocopy from St. Gabriel's Centennial Edition, Crawford County Press, 1936,
p. 15

Astor Fur Warehouse

Prairie du Chien, Wisconsin

Blanche Higgins Schroer, NPS 5/27/75

Historic Sites Survey, Washington, D.C.

view of north side and east end of warehouse, restoration project just completed

Astor Fur Warehouse

Prairie du Chien, Wisconsin

Blanche Higgins Schroer, NPS 5/27/75

Historic Site Survey, Washington, D.C.

view of south side and front, west end of warehouse