In memory of
Margaret T. Davis Hess

William Hess

Born February 18, 1779
Died July 20, 1853
She was a sister and daughter of the Rev. David Johnson and Mary White of N. Y. She was noted as the first woman to plead a case in the courts of the United States. The first woman of the law society (N. Y.) was nominated for honor. Mother of 10 children. This marker erected in grateful appreciation of our honored heritage by many descendants throughout the United States.
