The Munro House was built on foundations laid by Dr. Thomas Bratton Winn circa 1848 by Robert Sims Burch in 1856, using slave labor. Robert Toombs refugeed to this house during the Civil War, and shortly thereafter, the property was purchased by Mrs. John Guyton Fondren and her son-in-law, Robert G. Mitchell. The house remained in the Mitchell family for over 90 years, when it was finally sold to the present owners, the Rev. and Mrs. B.G. Munro.

The Munro House is one of the finest 'cottages' in Thomasville and is of exceptional quality in both craftmanship and design.
