The interior of the building was altered circa 1952 to accomodate the Bangor Historical Society collections and live-in custodian. A circular staircase was lost at that time and the decor altered for the worse.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The G.A.R. Memorial Home was built for Thomas A. Hill, prominent Bangor businessman, circa 1840. It was occupied by Bangor's first Mayor, the Honorable Allen Gilman, later by Samuel H. Dale, Mayor in 1863-66, 1871-72, died 1872. Mayor Dale's portrait hangs in the house. President Ullyses S. Grant was entertained at a reception put on at the house by Mr. & Mrs. Dale during the two day celebration of the dedication of the European and North American Railway, October 18 and 19, 1871. Special china was ordered for the affair and extra interior decorating efforts were made.

Three generations of Dale descendants occupied the house. It was bought by Dr. James F. Cox, prominent Bangor doctor, from the Walker family. In 1944, the Sons of Union Veterans acquired title and currently hold the building in public trust. The Bangor Historical Society (founded 1864) moved its museum collections to the second story in 1952 under agreement with the Sons.

The architect for the building was Richard Vpjohn.
