In 1895 the Alexanders bought three lots at the northwest corner of Third and State streets. Two local carpenters were hired to build a house on the corner lot from a picture and floor plans Mr. and Mrs. Alexander had seen in a newspaper. The four-bedroom, two-story frame house was completed in 1897 at a cost of $3200. Loke many houses of the late Victorian era, it is complex in form, with corner turret, porches on both floors, a bay window, and varied texture made up of shingles, clapboards and carved details. It has been in the family ever since its completion and has been beautifully maintained. Alexanders still occupy the house.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE (Include Personages, Dates, Events, Etc.)

Moses Alexander, the eleventh state governor of Idaho, came to Boise from Chillicothe, Missouri, in 1890. In 1891 he opened up a men's clothing store and was able to send for his family. Alexander did not come to Boise unprepared. Born in Germany, he had come to the United States at the age of fourteen, worked his way from clerk to partner in a clothing store in Chillicothe, and gained political experience as city councilman and mayor of the Missouri city.

His business and political career prospered further in Idaho. His small clothing store first expanded to a series of Main Street locations and later to a chain of stores in Idaho and eastern Oregon. His first attempt in the political arena in Idaho brought him the mayorality for two terms, 1897 and 1901. After an unsuccessful campaign in 1908 he was elected governor in 1914; a position to which he was re-elected in 1916. He was distinguished as being the first Jewish governor in the United States.

His platform consisted mainly of reducing state appropriations, which he carried through by use of his vetoing power. Because of this he was unable to get legislative support for his program of administrative reorganization. Re-elected in 1916, he gained a Democratic legislature which passed the Workman's Compensation Act and state insurance fund legislation.

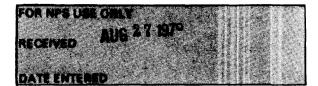

Moses Alexander died on January 4, 1932. His son, Nathan, succeeded him in the family business, but never entered the political sphere.

To the rear of the house and lot there is a one-story rectangular garage approximately 15-60 feet extending the length of the property boundary. It has shiplap siding and a gabled roof.

It appears to have been built in two stages, the rear section approximately 27×15 feet, was built at about the time the house was constructed. On the south side of this rear section there is a solid door and one double-hung sash window. On the north side, near the rear of the building is another solid door. The front section, approximately 33×15 feet was constructed as a garage with a concrete foundation and floor. On the south side of this section there is a door with windows and transom and two double-hung sash windows. A double-width automobile access door in the last wall opens into the building.

This garage provides a visual boundary insulating the house and yard from property across the alley that will become part of a state office building area. On that account, the garage contributes to the integrity of the house and yard as well as supplying historical material for the property.
