The building was certified second floor, town hall on the first

The building continued to be used for court as well as social purposes until July 22, 1872 when it was deeded to the Town of Newport. On May 18, 1874 it was deeded to the Union School District and became the Central School building until 1896 when it was rented by the Grange. On June 30, 1971 the Newport School District deeded it back to the Town at which time the question over the future of the building arose, as yet unsolved.
