This delightful Victorian Gothic house stands on a large, attractively landscaped lot on the south side of West College Avenue, south of downtown Waukesha.

It is a frame building with narrow clapboard siding and wood trim—all painted white. Plan and elevations are asymmetrical. The main block is T—shaped in plan, two and one—half stories in height, surmounted by intersecting gabled roofs that terminate in decorative bargeboards and are ornamented with iron cresting at the ridges. On the east elevation is a single story porte—cochere with a hipped roof; on the north elevation is a four story tower with little balconies at the fourth floor level and a hipped roof. On the northwest corner of the house is a single story Gothic—arched veranda that is crowned by a cupola, and on the west elevation, second story, is an oriel window. The main entrance is on the north, in the base of the tower, and is sheltered by a gabled hood on brackets. Window openings vary in shape—some are rectangular, some pointed—and a number of them have decorative wood trim. There is additional wood ornament on the tower and on the attic levels of north and east elevations.

At the rear of the house is a one story wing, a portion of which appears to be a later addition. If so, this is the lone alteration to the exterior. Changes have been made on the interior—installation of electricity, central heating, and hardwood floors—but the original partitions and fireplaces, together with much of the original woodwork and plasterwork, have survived. And the house has been carefully kept up.

Fanciful and picturesque, carefully preserved and maintained, the Chandler house is Waukesha County's outstanding Victorian Gothic residence. It was designed by Edward Townsend Mix, a prominent Milwaukee architect. When his home was built, Walter S. Chandler (1836-1896) was a lumber dealer. Later in his career, according to Willard Griswold, he became involved in the real estate business and also sold and distributed water from a spring on his property. In the latter regard it may be noted that the late 19th century was the heyday of Waukesha's spas-and-springs era, when the town, nicknamed "Spring City" and "Saratoga of the West," was a popular resort and its spring waters bottled and sold throughout the nation. After Chandler's death, ownership of the house passed to his widow. On her death in 1909, it was purchased by Albert C. Hartman, an executive of the T. A. Chapman department store in Milwaukee, whose daughter is the present owner.
