SENIOR HALL ON STRAWBERRY CREEK

Senior Hall, a symbol of Senior control on the campus, offers a pleasing contrast to the white granite and concrete of the academic buildings that look down upon its roof, and affords a meeting place on Thursday evenings for the Seniors who gather to discuss the weighty problems of undergraduate life. A roaring fire, well-filled pipes, and the comfortable roughness of California redwood logs for walls promote thought. The alumni built the hall in 1907.
