1. Historical Tobacco Work Branch Stemmery American Tobacco Company American Tobacco American American American Tobacco American American Tobacco American American Tobacco American American Tobacco American America	1 Historia Nama (a)		SINVENTORY Map #58
Owner's Manner       Rubbuch In Kentucky Service Center       Magnatic District         3. Owner's Manner       Three Twenty-Four, Inc.       Magnatic District         4. Owner's Manner       324 West Main Street, Louisville, Ky. 40202       Magnatic District         5. Losation       2410-16 Kaset-Main Street, Louisville, Ky. 40202       Magnatic District       Magnatic District         6. Losation       2410-16 Kaset-Main Street, Louisville, Ky. 40202       Magnatic District       Magnatic District         7. Owner's Manner       Yea       Na       Private       District       Street         7. Owner's Manner       Yea       Na       Private       District       Yea       Na         7. Owner's Manner       Yea       Na       Private       District       District       Yea       Na         7. West Main Street       Losation       Bisse       District       Distric	National Tobacco Wo	-	JF-L-P WP256 050
Rubbuch In Kentucky Service Center       3. Oversking         3. Oversking       Three Twenty-Four, Inc.         4. Owersking       324 West Main Street, Louisville, Ky 40202         3. Longdon       244 Vest Main Street, Louisville, Ky 40202         3. Longdon       7. Visie from read         4. Owersking       7. Visie from read         5. Longdon       7. Visie from read         7. Visie from read       8. Oversking         7. Visie from read       8. Oversking         7. Visie from read       7. Visie from read         7. Visie from read       8. Oversking         7. Visie from read       8. Oversking         7. Visie from read       8. Oversking         7. Visie from read       7. Visie from read         7. Visie from read       8. Oversking         7. Visie from read       7. Visie from read         7. Visie from read       8. Oversking         7. Visie from read       7. Visie from read         7. Visie from read       7. Visie from read         7. Visie from read       8. Oversking         7. Provide       7. Keeden         7. Provide       7. Visie from read         7. Provide       7. Acces         7. Provide       7. Acces         7. Provide	Original Owner American Tobacco Co	ompany	23. Zoning Classification
2. Owners Hames       Three Twenty-Four, Inc.       Image: Second Statement S	· · · ·	- Commiss Conton
Three Twenty-Four, Inc. 324 West Main Street, Louisville, Ky. 40202 A Constant Street Main Street, Louisville, Ky. 40212 Some Plubic Street Main Street, Louisville, Ky. 40212 Some Plubic Street Main Street Main Street Main Street area. 2. Simplement Street Main Street Main Street Area Main Street Main Main Main Main M	×
324 West Main Street, Louisville, Ky. 40202       Listing Object Eating Object Eating Object Eating Object Eating Object Eating Object Streeture Eating Street Streeture Eating Street
A Location       2410-18 Waget-Main Styreet, Louisville, Ky 40212       28. Prohitode Site       Open to Puble       Open to Puble       Open to Puble       No         A Local Correct/Correctation       Yes       No       Protect       Store       Stor		Louisville, Ky. 40202	$\frac{16}{2000}$ $\frac{606900}{Easting}$ $\frac{42351/2}{Northing}$
Open to Public       7. Visible from road Vea       7. Visible from road Vea<	5. Location 2410-18 West Main Street	t, Louisville, Ky 40212	26. Prehistoric Site Object
a Leek ContextOrganization Local Struct Experiments       Leek       Image: Struct       Name:         127 West Main Street       Fearsal       Image: Struct       Im	. Open to Public 7. Visible from road	8. Ownership	Building X
Louisville Landmarks Commission       Same       Paderal       Paderal         127 West Majn Street       Paderal       Paderal       Paderal         28. Significance Evaluation       Main Street       Paderal       Paderal         10. Site Plan with Noth Arrow       Block 3X       11. Architest       Paderal       Paderal         12. Builder       Unknown       In Architest       Paderal       Paderal       Pathods         12. Builder       Unknown       Block 3X       Date       Date         12. Builder       Unknown       Block 3X       Date         13. Date       Paderal       Date       Date         14. Strie       Commercial       Commercial       Date         15. Freemery       Block 3X       Date       Date         16. Freemery       Block 3X       Date       Date         17. Condition       Interior       Baterior Fair       Samera       Samera         14. description       Activity of the same year.       Anoder wood-paneled       Date       Photo         18. description       Photo       Samera       Photo       Samera       Photo         12. Street Samera       Samera Carifform of the same year.       Anong Murphy's works       Samera	Yes No X Yes X No	Private	X 27. District Yes No
727 West Marn Street     Instruction       25 West Marn Street     Instruction       26 West Marn North Arrow Approv. 1.2 achrC3     Block 3K       12 Builder     Dit. Architect       13 Big     Dit. Architect       12 Builder     Dit. Architect       12 Builder     Dit. Architect       13 Big     Dit. Architect       13 Big     Dit. Architect       13 Big     Dit. Architect       13 Big     Dit. St. Murphy & Brothers       13 Big     Dit. K. Murphy & Brothers       14 Deciption     Dit. St. Murphy & Brothers       15 Original Use     Dobacco       Commercial     Dit. St. Murphy & Brothers       14 Deciption     Dit. St. Murphy & Brothers       2410-15 West Main is a large five story, real brick     Sterrer Fair       2410-18 West Main is a large five story, real brick     Dit. Endengered       2410-19 West Main is a large five story, real brick     Structure.       2410-19 West Main is a large five story. Is situated above the entrance. A central vehicle entry and a doorway at the firm of D.X.       Brinerow     This building is one of two (along with 2400) constructed in 1898 for the National Tobacco Works Branch of D.X.       Murphy & Brothers, these buildings replaced those       destroyed by fire the same year. Among Murphy's works are the Jefferson County Jail and Jefferson Branch       Divestion		n l	Name:
Discretion       Discretion <thdiscretion< th="">       Discretion       Discretion<td></td><td>State</td><td></td></thdiscretion<>		State
Dr.Y. 1.2 & CEPS       BLOCK 3K         Maiw St.       Lot 65         264'       1.8 Bilder         10 Base       National Register         12 Base       National Register         13 Date       Commercial         14. Strie       Local Landmark         15. Original Use       Commercial         16. Original Use       Scenaler         17. Condition       Interior         18. Strie       Commercial         19. The strict rest of the condition of a modern wood-paneled door; a small, square window is situated above the entrance. A central vehicle entry and a doorway at the far right complete the first story. Identical, sash windows in the upper stories have metal sills (over)         This building is one of two (along with 2400) constructed in 1896 for the National Tobacco Works Branch of the American Tobacco Company. Designed by the firm of D.X.         Murphy & Brothers, these buildings replaced those         Cestrower of chewing tobacco in the city. This industry was very important to the development of Library.         Significance         19. Source of Information         "Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal 26 February 1898, p. 8.		an a
Main St.       National Register         266'       13. Date       13. Date         13. Date       13. Date       Londmark Cartificate         13. Date       13. Date       Londmark Cartificate         14. Strie       Commercial       Londmark Cartificate         14. Strie       Commercial       Hastridate         15. Present Use       Secondary (Delta Cut) (Lice (Lice Cut)       Commercial         16. Present Use       Secondary (Delta Cut) (Lice (Lice Cut)       Commercial         16. Present Use       Commercial       Other       AttAct Hastrides         17. Condition       Interior       Secondary (Delta Cut)       Commercial         18. Present Use       Commercial       Other       AttAct Hastrides         2410-18 West Main is a large five story, red brick       Structure. Cut)       Structure. C	pproy. 1.2 acres Block 3K		rc
1014R0M1       National Pagitar         10. Data       Indimark Cartificats         11. Data       Indimark Cartificats         12.97       14. Style         14. Style       Indignal Una TODACCO         15. Original Una TODACCO       30. Thema         16. Priorition       30. Thema         17. Condition       11. Endangered         18. Style       Structure         19. Condition       11. Endangered         10. Transition       11. Endangered         11. Endangered       No x         2410-18 West Main is a large five story, red brick       Structure         2410-18 West Main is a large five story, red brick       Structure         2410-18 West Main is a large five story, red brick       Structure         2410-18 West Main is a large five story. The main entry on the left has       No x         Extender Fair       Stander word-paneled       No x         2400-18 West Main is a large five story. Identical, sash       (over)         Phirow       This building is one of two (along with 2400) constructed       In 1898 for the National Tobacco Works Branch of the         American Tobacco Company. Designed by the firm of D.X.       Mittor       Stander word         Nurphy is Brothers, these buildings replaced those       Stange No.       Stapathone	Main St. Lot 65
1838       Kentuck Survey         14.5 Style       Commercial         15. Ordinal Use ToDBaCO       30. Thme         15. Ordinal Use ToDBaCO       30. Thme         Printle St.       Scondary Tebbete attracting         16. Present Use       Commercial         17. Description       11. Endangered         2410-18 West Main is a large five story, red brick       St. Endangered         2410-18 West Main is a large five story, red brick       St. Endangered         2410-18 West Main is a large five story, red brick       St. Endangered         2410-18 West Main is a large five story, red brick       St. Endangered         2410-18 West Main is a large five story, rad brick       St. Endangered         2410-18 West Main is a large five story, rad brick       St. Endangered         2410-18 West Main is a large five story, rad brick       St. Endangered         2410-18 West Main is a large five story, rad brick       St. Endangered         2410-18 West Main is a large five story, rad brick       St. Endangered         2410-18 West Main Street story.       The main entry on the left has         25       Stepsite       St. Endangered         26 February lass on e of two (along with 2400) constructed       St. Steff Review         18 Significance       St. Steff Review         19 Significance	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	Unknown	National Register
14. Style       Local Landmark         14. Style       Local Landmark         15. Ordinal Use       Tobacco         Stemmery       Stemmery         16. Present Use       Commercial         0. The National Tobacco Works was one of the largest manufacturers of chewing tobacco in the city. This industry was very important to the development of Louisville Courier-Journal       31. Endengered         9 Significance       71. Condition       32.         9 Significance       32.         9 Significance       Structure. In the ground story, tall, narrow windows are closed by metal shutters. The main entry on the left has structure. In the ground story, tall, narrow windows are closed by metal shutters. The main entry on the left has she window is situated above the entrance. A central vehicle entry and a doorway at the far right complete the first story. Talentical, sash windows in the upper stories have metal sills (over)       31. Endengered         Murphy & Brothers, these buildings replaced those       Rell No.       57         9 Significance       33. Tage No.       Negative No.         34. Pregared by:       Main Street area.       33. Tage No.       Negative No.         35. Once 8/9/79       38. Staff Review       38. Staff Review	266'
1957       27
192       St.       15 Original Use TOBACCO Stemmery       30. There         Stemmery       Firmery       Firmery       Firmery         Protected and culture       0       2         Pirtle St.       17. Condition Interior       31. Endengered       Ves         Description       32.       31. Endengered       No. X         2410-18 West Main is a large five story, red brick structure. In the ground story, tall, narrow windows are closed by metal shutters. The main entry on the left has been altered by the addition of a modern wood-paneled door; a small, square window is situated above the entrance. A central vehicle entry and a doorway at the far right complete the first story. Identical, sash windows in the upper stories have metal sills (over)       ATTACH         Wittory       This building is one of two (along with 2400) constructed in 1898 for the National Tobacco Works Branch of the American Tobacco Company. Designed by the firm of D.X.       Holl No.       57         Murphy & Brothers, these buildings replaced those destroyed by fire the same year. Among Murphy's works are the Jefferson County Jail and Jefferson Branch Library.       33. Tape No.       Negative No.         34. Prepared by: industry was very important to the development of Louisville and the West Main Street area.       33. Tape No.       Negative No.         35. Orgenization "Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal 26 February 1898, p. 8.       38. Staff Review		14
Stemmery       Finary       Judistri/       2         16. Present Use       Commercial       Secondary Tebbeles Infirumities (Commercial)       31. Endangered       Yes         17. Condition       11. Forder       32.         Description       31. Endangered       Yes         2410-13 West Main is a large five story, red brick structure. In the ground story, tall, narrow windows are closed by metal shutters. The main entry on the left has been altered by the addition of a modern wood-paneled door; a small, square window is situated above the entrance. A central vehicle entry and a doorway at the far right complete the first story. Identical, sash windows in the upper stories have metal sills (over)       ATTACH         History       Thistory       The National Tobacco Works Branch of the American Tobacco Company. Designed by the firm of D.X.       No       Stemmery         Murphy & Brothers, these buildings replaced those destroyed by fire the same year. Anong Murphy's works are the Jefferson County Jail and Jefferson Branch Library.       33. Tage No.       Negative No.         34. Propared by:       Murphy & Brothers, these thain Street area.       33. Tage No.       Negative No.         35. Oragaization       36. Date 8/9/19       38. Staff Review       38. Staff Review	195
Commercial       Other       Machileture       O         Pirtle S4.       17. Condition       31. Endangered       Yes         Description       32.       31. Endangered       Yes         Description       32.       32.       32.         Description       32.       ATTACH         Structure. In the ground story, tall, narrow windows are closed by metal shutters. The main entry on the left has been altered by the addition of a modern wood-paneled door; a small, square window is situated above the entrance. A central vehicle entry and a doorway at the far right complete the first story. Identical, sash windows in the upper stories have metal sills (over)       ATTACH         History       This building is one of two (along with 2400) constructed in 1898 for the National Tobacco Works Branch of the American Tobacco Company. Designed by the firm of D.X.       Holl No.       57         Murphy & Brothers, these buildings replaced those       6estroyed by fire the same year. Among Murphy's works are the Jefferson County Jail and Jefferson Branch       Significance       33. Tape No.       Negative No.         Significance       33. Tape No.       Negative No.       34. Prepared by:         Hugh B. Foshee/Researcher       Sorgeiration       Socration       36. Date 8/9/79         Seurce of Information       "Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal 26 February 1898, p. 8.       37. Revision Dates       38. Staff Review
Pirtle S4.       17. Condition       31. Endangered       Yes         Description       2410-18 West Main is a large five story, red brick       32.       32.         Description       32.       32.         Descriptin       10.0000 constructed       1			Secondary tobacco aniculture 02
Pirtle S4.       Interior       No x         Description       2410-18 West Main is a large five story, red brick       32.         Structure. In the ground story, tall, narrow windows are       ATTACH         photom       2410-18 West Main is a large five story, red brick       ATTACH         photom       Structure. In the ground story, tall, narrow windows are       ATTACH         photom       Structure. In the ground story, tall, narrow windows are       ATTACH         photom       adorway at the       Fair right complete the first story. Identical, sash       Mindows in the upper stories have metal sills (over)         History       This building is one of two (along with 2400) constructed       In 1898 for the National Tobacco Works Branch of the         American Tobacco Company. Designed by the firm of D.X.       Murphy & Brothers, these buildings replaced those         destroyed by fire the same year. Among Murphy's works are the Jefferson County Jail and Jefferson Branch       Significance         Significance       33. Tope No.       Negative No.         Significance       33. Tope No.       Negative No.         Significance       35. Orgenization       36. Orgenization         "Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal       26. Pebruary 1898, p. 8.       38. Staff Review
Yinfle St.       Exterior Fair       32.         Description       2410-18 West Main is a large five story, red brick structure. In the ground story, tall, narrow windows are closed by metal shutters. The main entry on the left has been altered by the addition of a modern wood-paneled door, a small, square window is situated above the entrance. A central vehicle entry and a doorway at the far right complete the first story. Identical, sash windows in the upper stories have metal sills (over)       Attach PHOTO         History       This building is one of two (along with 2400) constructed in 1898 for the National Tobacco Works Branch of D.X. Murphy & Brothers, these buildings replaced those destroyed by fire the same year. Among Murphy's works are the Jefferson County Jail and Jefferson Branch Library.       Roll No.       57 Pleture No.         Significance       33. Tape No.       1/2         The National Tobacco Works was one of the largest industry was very important to the development of Louisville and the West Main Street area.       33. Tape No.       Negative No.         34. Prepared by: Hugh B. Foshee/Researcher       35. Orgenization Louisville Landmarks Commission 36. Date 8/9/79       37. Revision Dates       38. Staff Review         35. Orgenization 26 February 1898, p. 8.       37. Revision Dates       38. Staff Review
<ul> <li>Description 2410-18 West Main is a large five story, red brick structure. In the ground story, tall, narrow windows are closed by metal shutters. The main entry on the left has been altered by the addition of a modern wood-paneled door; a small, square window is situated above the entrance. A central vehicle entry and a doorway at the far right complete the first story. Identical, sash windows in the upper stories have metal sills (over)</li> <li>History This building is one of two (along with 2400) constructed in 1898 for the National Tobacco Works Branch of the American Tobacco Company. Designed by the firm of D.X. Murphy &amp; Brothers, these buildings replaced those destroyed by fire the same year. Among Murphy's works are the Jefferson County Jail and Jefferson Branch Library.</li> <li>Significance The National Tobacco Works was one of the largest manufacturers of chewing tobacco in the city. This industry was very important to the development of Louisville and the West Main Street area.</li> <li>Source of information "Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal 26 February 1898, p. 8.</li> </ul>	Pirtle St.	T
Structure. In the ground story, tall, narrow windows are closed by metal shutters. The main entry on the left has been altered by the addition of a modern wood-paneled door; a small, square window is situated above the entrance. A central vehicle entry and a doorway at the far right complete the first story. Identical, sash windows in the upper stories have metal sills (over) Hisory This building is one of two (along with 2400) constructed in 1898 for the National Tobacco Works Branch of the American Tobacco Company. Designed by the firm of D.X. Murphy & Brothers, these buildings replaced those destroyed by fire the same year. Among Murphy's works are the Jefferson County Jail and Jefferson Branch Library. Disgnificance The National Tobacco Works was one of the largest manufacturers of chewing tobacco in the city. This industry was very important to the development of Louisville and the West Main Street area. Source of Information "Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal 26 February 1898, p. 8.
closed by metal shutters. The main entry on the left has been altered by the addition of a modern wood-paneled door; a small, square window is situated above the entrance. A central vehicle entry and a doorway at the far right complete the first story. Identical, sash windows in the upper stories have metal sills (over) History This building is one of two (along with 2400) constructed in 1898 for the National Tobacco Works Branch of the American Tobacco Company. Designed by the firm of D.X. Murphy & Brothers, these buildings replaced those destroyed by fire the same year. Among Murphy's works are the Jefferson County Jail and Jefferson Branch Library. Disgnificance The National Tobacco Works was one of the largest manufacturers of chewing tobacco in the city. This industry was very important to the development of Louisville and the West Main Street area. Source of Information "Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal 26 February 1898, p. 8.	2/10-19 Worth Made day been altered by the addition of a modern wood-paneled door; a small, square window is situated above the entrance. A central vehicle entry and a doorway at the far right complete the first story. Identical, sash windows in the upper stories have metal sills (over) History This building is one of two (along with 2400) constructed in 1898 for the National Tobacco Works Branch of the American Tobacco Company. Designed by the firm of D.X. Murphy & Brothers, these buildings replaced those destroyed by fire the same year. Among Murphy's works are the Jefferson County Jail and Jefferson Branch Library. Disgnificance The National Tobacco Works was one of the largest manufacturers of chewing tobacco in the city. This industry was very important to the development of Louisville and the West Main Street area. Source of Information "Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal 26 February 1898, p. 8.
door; a small, square window is situated above the entrance. A central vehicle entry and a doorway at the far right complete the first story. Identical, sash windows in the upper stories have metal sills (over)       Image: Complete the first story. Identical, sash windows in the upper stories have metal sills (over)         Histow       This building is one of two (along with 2400) constructed in 1898 for the National Tobacco Works Branch of the American Tobacco Company. Designed by the firm of D.X. Murphy & Brothers, these buildings replaced those destroyed by fire the same year. Among Murphy's works are the Jefferson County Jail and Jefferson Branch Library.       Foll No.       57         Direction       // Z       Direction         33. Tape No.       Negative No.         34. Prepared by: manufacturers of chewing tobacco in the city. This industry was very important to the development of Louisville and the West Main Street area.       33. Tape No.       Negative No.         35. Organization Louisville and the West Main Street area.       36. Date 8/9/79       37. Revision Dates       38. Staff Review         37. Revision Dates       38. Staff Review       37. Revision Dates       38. Staff Review	structure. In the ground story	y, tall, narrow windows	are рното entrance. A central vehicle entry and a doorway at the far right complete the first story. Identical, sash windows in the upper stories have metal sills (over)         History         This building is one of two (along with 2400) constructed in 1898 for the National Tobacco Works Branch of the American Tobacco Company. Designed by the firm of D.X.         Murphy & Brothers, these buildings replaced those destroyed by fire the same year. Among Murphy's works are the Jefferson County Jail and Jefferson Branch Library.         D. Significance       677         The National Tobacco Works was one of the largest manufacturers of chewing tobacco in the city. This industry was very important to the development of Louisville and the West Main Street area.       33. Tape No.       17         35. Source of Information       "Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal 26 February 1898, p. 8.       38. Staff Review	structure. In the ground story closed by metal shutters. The	y, tall, narrow windows main entry on the left	are рното far right complete the first story. Identical, sash windows in the upper stories have metal sills (over)         hHistory This building is one of two (along with 2400) constructed in 1898 for the National Tobacco Works Branch of the American Tobacco Company. Designed by the firm of D.X. Murphy & Brothers, these buildings replaced those destroyed by fire the same year. Among Murphy's works are the Jefferson County Jail and Jefferson Branch Library.       Roll No.       57         9. Significance       33. Tape No.       1/7         7. Significance       33. Tape No.       Negative No.         9. Significance       33. Tape No.       Negative No.         9. Significance       33. Tape No.       Negative No.         9. Significance       34. Prepared by: Hugh B. Foshee/Researcher       Hugh B. Foshee/Researcher         1. Source of Information       "Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal 26 February 1898, p. 8.       37. Revision Dates       38. Staff Review	structure. In the ground story closed by metal shutters. The been altered by the addition of	y, tall, narrow windows main entry on the left f a modern wood-paneled	are рното
<pre>windows in the upper stories have metal sills (over) History This building is one of two (along with 2400) constructed in 1898 for the National Tobacco Works Branch of the American Tobacco Company. Designed by the firm of D.X. Murphy &amp; Brothers, these buildings replaced those destroyed by fire the same year. Among Murphy's works are the Jefferson County Jail and Jefferson Branch Library.  Significance The National Tobacco Works was one of the largest manufacturers of chewing tobacco in the city. This industry was very important to the development of Louisville and the West Main Street area.  Source of Information "Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal 26 February 1898, p. 8. </pre>	structure. In the ground story closed by metal shutters. The been altered by the addition of door; a small, square window i	y, tall, narrow windows main entry on the left f a modern wood-paneled is situated above the	are PHOTO has
This building is one of two (along with 2400) constructed in 1898 for the National Tobacco Works Branch of the American Tobacco Company. Designed by the firm of D.X. Murphy & Brothers, these buildings replaced those destroyed by fire the same year. Among Murphy's works are the Jefferson County Jail and Jefferson Branch Library. Significance The National Tobacco Works was one of the largest manufacturers of chewing tobacco in the city. This industry was very important to the development of Louisville and the West Main Street area. Source of Information "Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal 26 February 1898, p. 8.	structure. In the ground story closed by metal shutters. The been altered by the addition of door; a small, square window is entrance. A central vehicle er	y, tall, narrow windows main entry on the left f a modern wood-paneled is situated above the ntry and a doorway at th	are PHOTO has
<pre>in 1898 for the National Tobacco Works Branch of the American Tobacco Company. Designed by the firm of D.X. Murphy &amp; Brothers, these buildings replaced those destroyed by fire the same year. Among Murphy's works are the Jefferson County Jail and Jefferson Branch Library.</pre> Roll No. 57 Picture No. 77 Direction 33. Tape No. 83. Tape No. Negative No. 34. Prepared by: Hugh B. Foshee/Researcher 35. organization Louisville and the West Main Street area. Source of Information "Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal 26 February 1898, p. 8. Negative No. 37. Revision Dates Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal 26 February 1898, p. 8.	structure. In the ground story closed by metal shutters. The been altered by the addition of door; a small, square window is entrance. A central vehicle er far right complete the first st	y, tall, narrow windows main entry on the left f a modern wood-paneled is situated above the ntry and a doorway at th tory. Identical, sash	are has e
American Tobacco Company. Designed by the firm of D.X. Murphy & Brothers, these buildings replaced those destroyed by fire the same year. Among Murphy's works are the Jefferson County Jail and Jefferson Branch Library. Significance The National Tobacco Works was one of the largest manufacturers of chewing tobacco in the city. This industry was very important to the development of Louisville and the West Main Street area. Source of Information "Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal 26 February 1898, p. 8. American Tobacco Company. Designed by the firm of D.X. Murphy & Brothers, these buildings replaced those destroyed by fire the same year. Among Murphy's works are the Jefferson County Jail and Jefferson Branch Library. Boll No. 57 Pleture No. 17 Direction 33. Tape No. 14 17 17 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10	structure. In the ground story closed by metal shutters. The been altered by the addition of door; a small, square window is entrance. A central vehicle er far right complete the first st windows in the upper stories ha	y, tall, narrow windows main entry on the left f a modern wood-paneled is situated above the ntry and a doorway at th tory. Identical, sash ave metal sills (ov	are photo has le er)
Murphy & Brothers, these buildings replaced those         destroyed by fire the same year. Among Murphy's works         are the Jefferson County Jail and Jefferson Branch         Library.         D. Significance         The National Tobacco Works was one of the largest         manufacturers of chewing tobacco in the city. This         industry was very important to the development of         Louisville and the West Main Street area.         Source of Information         "Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal         26 February 1898, p. 8.	structure. In the ground story closed by metal shutters. The been altered by the addition of door; a small, square window is entrance. A central vehicle er far right complete the first st windows in the upper stories ha History This building is one of two (al	y, tall, narrow windows main entry on the left f a modern wood-paneled is situated above the ntry and a doorway at th tory. Identical, sash ave metal sills (ov long with 2400) construc	are photo has le er)
Idestroyed by fire the same year. Among Murphy's works are the Jefferson County Jail and Jefferson Branch Library.       Roll No.       57         No.       1/7       Direction         Direction       33. Tape No.       Negative No.         Significance       33. Tape No.       Negative No.         The National Tobacco Works was one of the largest manufacturers of chewing tobacco in the city. This industry was very important to the development of Louisville and the West Main Street area.       33. Tape No.       Negative No.         Source of Information       "Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal 26 February 1898, p. 8.       Source of Information       37. Revision Dates       38. Staff Review	structure. In the ground story closed by metal shutters. The been altered by the addition of door; a small, square window is entrance. A central vehicle er far right complete the first st windows in the upper stories ha . History This building is one of two (all in 1898 for the National Tobacc	y, tall, narrow windows main entry on the left f a modern wood-paneled is situated above the ntry and a doorway at th tory. Identical, sash ave metal sills (ov long with 2400) construc co Works Branch of the	are рното has ree rer) are the Jefferson County Jail and Jefferson Branch Library. Direction Significance The National Tobacco Works was one of the largest manufacturers of chewing tobacco in the city. This industry was very important to the development of Louisville and the West Main Street area. Source of Information "Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal 26 February 1898, p. 8.	structure. In the ground story closed by metal shutters. The been altered by the addition of door; a small, square window is entrance. A central vehicle er far right complete the first st windows in the upper stories has history This building is one of two (al in 1898 for the National Tobacco American Tobacco Company. Desi	y, tall, narrow windows main entry on the left f a modern wood-paneled is situated above the ntry and a doorway at th tory. Identical, sash ave metal sills (ov long with 2400) construc co Works Branch of the igned by the firm of D.X	are PHOTO has Contration (1997) reen beted
Library. Direction Direction Direction Direction Direction Direction Direction Direction Direction 33. Tape No. 34. Prepared by: Hugh B. Foshee/Researcher 35. Organization Louisville and the West Main Street area. 36. Date 8/9/79 37. Revision Dates 38. Staff Review	structure. In the ground story closed by metal shutters. The been altered by the addition of door; a small, square window is entrance. A central vehicle er far right complete the first st windows in the upper stories ha . History This building is one of two (al in 1898 for the National Tobacco American Tobacco Company. Desi Murphy & Brothers, these buildi	y, tall, narrow windows main entry on the left f a modern wood-paneled is situated above the ntry and a doorway at th tory. Identical, sash ave metal sills (ov long with 2400) construc co Works Branch of the igned by the firm of D.X ings replaced those	are has rer) tted
The National Tobacco Works was one of the largest manufacturers of chewing tobacco in the city. This industry was very important to the development of Louisville and the West Main Street area. Source of Information "Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal 26 February 1898, p. 8.	structure. In the ground story closed by metal shutters. The been altered by the addition of door; a small, square window i entrance. A central vehicle er far right complete the first st windows in the upper stories ha history This building is one of two (al in 1898 for the National Tobacc American Tobacco Company. Desi Murphy & Brothers, these buildi destroyed by fire the same year	y, tall, narrow windows main entry on the left f a modern wood-paneled is situated above the ntry and a doorway at th tory. Identical, sash ave metal sills (ov long with 2400) construc co Works Branch of the igned by the firm of D.X ings replaced those c. Among Murphy's works	are PHOTO has ree er) eted Roll No. 57
The National Tobacco Works was one of the largest manufacturers of chewing tobacco in the city. This industry was very important to the development of Louisville and the West Main Street area. Source of Information "Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal 26 February 1898, p. 8.	structure. In the ground story closed by metal shutters. The been altered by the addition of door; a small, square window is entrance. A central vehicle er far right complete the first st windows in the upper stories ha History This building is one of two (al in 1898 for the National Tobacco American Tobacco Company. Desi Murphy & Brothers, these buildi destroyed by fire the same year are the Jefferson County Jail a	y, tall, narrow windows main entry on the left f a modern wood-paneled is situated above the ntry and a doorway at th tory. Identical, sash ave metal sills (ov long with 2400) construc co Works Branch of the igned by the firm of D.X ings replaced those c. Among Murphy's works	are     PHOTO       has
Hit Additional Tobacco works was one of the Targest manufacturers of chewing tobacco in the city. This industry was very important to the development of Louisville and the West Main Street area. Hugh B. Foshee/Researcher Jourisville Landmarks Commission Louisville Landmarks Commission 36. Date 8/9/79 Source of Information "Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal 26 February 1898, p. 8.	structure. In the ground story closed by metal shutters. The been altered by the addition of door; a small, square window i entrance. A central vehicle er far right complete the first st windows in the upper stories ha . History This building is one of two (al in 1898 for the National Tobacco American Tobacco Company. Desi Murphy & Brothers, these buildi destroyed by fire the same year are the Jefferson County Jail a Library.	y, tall, narrow windows main entry on the left f a modern wood-paneled is situated above the ntry and a doorway at th tory. Identical, sash ave metal sills (ov long with 2400) construc co Works Branch of the igned by the firm of D.X ings replaced those c. Among Murphy's works	are has PHOTO
<pre>industry was very important to the development of Louisville and the West Main Street area. . Source of Information "Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal 26 February 1898, p. 8.</pre>	structure. In the ground story closed by metal shutters. The been altered by the addition of door; a small, square window i entrance. A central vehicle er far right complete the first st windows in the upper stories ha history This building is one of two (al in 1898 for the National Tobacc American Tobacco Company. Desi Murphy & Brothers, these buildi destroyed by fire the same year are the Jefferson County Jail a Library.	y, tall, narrow windows main entry on the left f a modern wood-paneled is situated above the ntry and a doorway at th tory. Identical, sash ave metal sills (ov long with 2400) construc co Works Branch of the igned by the firm of D.X ings replaced those c. Among Murphy's works and Jefferson Branch	are has PHOTO has PHOTO
Louisville and the West Main Street area. Source of Information "Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal 26 February 1898, p. 8. 35. Organization Louisville Landmarks Commission 36. Date 8/9/79 37. Revision Dates 38. Staff Review	structure. In the ground story closed by metal shutters. The been altered by the addition of door; a small, square window is entrance. A central vehicle er far right complete the first st windows in the upper stories ha . History This building is one of two (al in 1898 for the National Tobacco American Tobacco Company. Desi Murphy & Brothers, these buildi destroyed by fire the same year are the Jefferson County Jail a Library.	y, tall, narrow windows main entry on the left f a modern wood-paneled is situated above the ntry and a doorway at th tory. Identical, sash ave metal sills (ov long with 2400) construc co Works Branch of the igned by the firm of D.X ings replaced those c. Among Murphy's works and Jefferson Branch	are has PHOTO has PHOTO
36. Date 8/9/79 37. Revision Dates 38. Staff Review "Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal 26 February 1898, p. 8.	structure. In the ground story closed by metal shutters. The been altered by the addition of door; a small, square window is entrance. A central vehicle er far right complete the first st windows in the upper stories ha . History This building is one of two (al in 1898 for the National Tobacco American Tobacco Company. Desi Murphy & Brothers, these buildi destroyed by fire the same year are the Jefferson County Jail a Library. D. Significance The National Tobacco Works we manufacturers of chewing toba	y, tall, narrow windows main entry on the left f a modern wood-paneled is situated above the ntry and a doorway at th tory. Identical, sash ave metal sills (ov long with 2400) construc co Works Branch of the igned by the firm of D.X ings replaced those c. Among Murphy's works and Jefferson Branch	are has     PHOTO       ie     (a. AK SHALL ( b. f.
I. Source of Information 37. Revision Dates 38. Staff Review "Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal 26 February 1898, p. 8.	structure. In the ground story closed by metal shutters. The been altered by the addition of door; a small, square window is entrance. A central vehicle er far right complete the first st windows in the upper stories ha and the upper stories have the building is one of two (al in 1898 for the National Tobacco American Tobacco Company. Desi Murphy & Brothers, these buildid destroyed by fire the same year are the Jefferson County Jail a Library. Significance The National Tobacco Works we manufacturers of chewing toba industry was very important	y, tall, narrow windows main entry on the left f a modern wood-paneled is situated above the ntry and a doorway at th tory. Identical, sash ave metal sills (ov long with 2400) construc co Works Branch of the igned by the firm of D.X ings replaced those c. Among Murphy's works and Jefferson Branch as one of the largest acco in the city. This to the development of	are has rechas recr) red red recr) red red recr) reted recriment r
"Burned Like Tinder", Louisville Courier-Journal 26 February 1898, p. 8.	structure. In the ground story closed by metal shutters. The been altered by the addition of door; a small, square window is entrance. A central vehicle er far right complete the first st windows in the upper stories ha and the upper stories have the building is one of two (al in 1898 for the National Tobacco American Tobacco Company. Desi Murphy & Brothers, these buildid destroyed by fire the same year are the Jefferson County Jail a Library. Significance The National Tobacco Works we manufacturers of chewing toba industry was very important	y, tall, narrow windows main entry on the left f a modern wood-paneled is situated above the ntry and a doorway at th tory. Identical, sash ave metal sills (ov long with 2400) construc co Works Branch of the igned by the firm of D.X ings replaced those c. Among Murphy's works and Jefferson Branch as one of the largest acco in the city. This to the development of	are has rechas recr) red red recr) red red recr) reted recriment r
26 February 1898, p. 8.	structure. In the ground story closed by metal shutters. The been altered by the addition of door; a small, square window is entrance. A central vehicle er far right complete the first st windows in the upper stories ha and the upper stories have the building is one of two (al in 1898 for the National Tobacco American Tobacco Company. Desi Murphy & Brothers, these buildid destroyed by fire the same year are the Jefferson County Jail a Library. Significance The National Tobacco Works we manufacturers of chewing toba industry was very important	y, tall, narrow windows main entry on the left f a modern wood-paneled is situated above the ntry and a doorway at th tory. Identical, sash ave metal sills (ov long with 2400) construc co Works Branch of the igned by the firm of D.X ings replaced those c. Among Murphy's works and Jefferson Branch as one of the largest acco in the city. This to the development of	are has PHOTO has PHOTO
	structure. In the ground story closed by metal shutters. The been altered by the addition of door; a small, square window is entrance. A central vehicle er far right complete the first st windows in the upper stories ha a. History This building is one of two (al in 1898 for the National Tobacco American Tobacco Company. Desi Murphy & Brothers, these buildid destroyed by fire the same year are the Jefferson County Jail a Library. D. Significance The National Tobacco Works we manufacturers of chewing toba industry was very important Louisville and the West Main	y, tall, narrow windows main entry on the left f a modern wood-paneled is situated above the htry and a doorway at th tory. Identical, sash ave metal sills (ov long with 2400) construc co Works Branch of the igned by the firm of D.X ings replaced those c. Among Murphy's works and Jefferson Branch as one of the largest acco in the city. This to the development of Street area.	are has PHOTO PHOTO (0.4%) (0.
	structure. In the ground story closed by metal shutters. The been altered by the addition of door; a small, square window i entrance. A central vehicle er far right complete the first st windows in the upper stories ha history This building is one of two (al in 1898 for the National Tobacco American Tobacco Company. Desi Murphy & Brothers, these buildid destroyed by fire the same year are the Jefferson County Jail a Library. D. Significance The National Tobacco Works wa manufacturers of chewing toba industry was very important Louisville and the West Main "Burned Like Tinder", Louis	y, tall, narrow windows main entry on the left f a modern wood-paneled is situated above the htry and a doorway at th tory. Identical, sash ave metal sills (ov long with 2400) construc co Works Branch of the igned by the firm of D.X ings replaced those c. Among Murphy's works and Jefferson Branch as one of the largest acco in the city. This to the development of Street area.	are has PHOTO PHOTO (0.4%) (0.

- 18. and lintels; top three stories' windows are boarded in. A stone string course runs above the upper story. Two bands of brick corbeling just below the roofline and a molded stone cornice crown the building.
- 10. The Stemmery and Branch Drying House (Wp-255) are built with common walls and occupy the entire site.
- 21. "Tobacco Factory", Louisville Courier-Journal, 5 March 1898, p. 12.