

THE LOG CABIN

THE LOG CABIN WAS BUILT BY A SLAVE BOY IN 1846
AND WAS PRESERVED BY THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI
AS A MONUMENT TO THE SLAVES OF THE STATE. IT WAS REBUILT IN 1946 TO REPRODUCE THE APPEARANCE OF THE ORIGINAL. THE CABIN WAS BUILT BY A SLAVE BOY
AND WAS PRESERVED BY THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI
AS A MONUMENT TO THE SLAVES OF THE STATE. IT
WAS REBUILT IN 1946 TO REPRODUCE THE APPEARANCE
OF THE ORIGINAL. THE CABIN WAS BUILT BY A SLAVE
BOY AND WAS PRESERVED BY THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI
AS A MONUMENT TO THE SLAVES OF THE STATE. IT
WAS REBUILT IN 1946 TO REPRODUCE THE APPEARANCE
OF THE ORIGINAL.

HALVERSON LOG CABIN

University of Wisconsin - Whitewater,
Whitewater, Walworth County, Wisc.

Photo by Paul R. Lusignan, July 1984

Neg. at WI Historical Society.

View from southeast.

Photo #1 of 2

0117184

h216/11

HALVERSON LOG CABIN

University of Wisconsin - Whitewater,
Whitewater, Walworth County, Wisc.

Photo by Paul R. Lusignan, July 1984

Neg. at WI Historical Society.

View from northeast.

Photo #2 of 2
