Dear Brother.

It is again Fri. day evening, and I must write to thee. we had Aunt Margaret Uncle George and Charley here to tea. they have just gone. Charley has been here but once since his return from Philadelphia. Aunt Margaret seems in very good spirits since she heard that Wilson has let his Ranch she expects to come home in the second month. How glad we shall be to see him. Mary Abby has left us and we have Francis Bates the teacher & Willie & Jane. Willie has learned to spell Cat. Foot & Dick little words. He says like Richard that they have got George Tom & Charley in the State with a delict on Tom grows a little, will he not be nice to ride by the time thee comes home. we have got a little calf! Willie says but I have not seen it yet. he thinks it is very nice. It stormed so hard last Sunday night that Pat and I staid at Aunt Leydias. Eliza Jane said that she had just mailed a letter to thee and should wait for an answer. She told me to give thee a list of the names of the girls at school we have a great many I will give thee some that I think thee knows. Anna Webster Patricia Webster Kate & Ed Wood. Emily Hill Laura McAlister Sarah & Lilly Gay. Libbie Baker also (she is a real nice little girl from Geneva she boards with Miss

Field, & Nell Skatts and Martha Fairbanks.
I think Anna Wits will come. son. Eliza Purdie Angusta Hadley Bill Warner. Martha Fairbanks Elma Kern Miss Guernsey Miss Savage Sabina Webster. Anna Wits Jacob & my self take drawing lessons. we are getting along quite fast.
Mother says she will lette that before Christmas what ^{to} do about thy clothes. we have to write Compositions and read them every week, and the boys speak every other week, there is no snow on the ground now we have had so much rain that it is all melted. I will send thee the Observe there is not much in it though it will come acceptable to thee I suppose.
Cousin Sarah is expected home Thrid-day afternoon.
I must write to Ben Underhill son. I've received a long letter from ~~the~~ him he said he had just received a nice letter from thee. I have had my muff made into a Victoria and Sarah has bought herself a white one Mother and I made Jane one out of some skins that we bought. I guess I must close all send thee love.
Sister.
