A black and white photograph of a gravestone. The stone is made of rough-hewn, light-colored material. It features a dark, rectangular plaque with engraved text. The text on the plaque reads: "Valentine T. McGillicuddy" in a large, stylized font, followed by "WASIGU WAKAN" in a smaller font, and "1849 - 1939" at the bottom. The stone is set on a base, and the background is slightly blurred, suggesting an outdoor setting.
